ing $150,000.By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Varied forms of tax relief were sought by a number of organized interests through representatives appearing before the House Ways and Means Committee.Nine organizations were allotted time today by the committee, which will hear all parties interested in the proposed tax reduction measure before starting work a week from Monday on the drafting of the bill.
The Treasury, meanwhile, has definitely included in its suggestions for tax reform the repeal of the provision of the present law, allowing a 25 per cent reduction in the tax on earned income up to $15,000. This was presented in a new schedule of normal tax rates transmitted by the Treasury to the committee and differing materially from that presented on the first day, when the committee heard Secretary Mellon and other Treasury officials.The committee at that time did not get the impression that the Treasury was proposing a repeal of the earned income provision and some of its members, after a hasty review of the new schedule authorized yesterday, said they foresaw
little support for the repeal in Congress.The new schedule upon which the committee now is informed the Treasury bases its estimate of a $160,000,000 cut in the income tax revenue, would start the normal tax
at 1 per cent on the first $30,000,
with 2 per cent applying on the next $4000 and 5 per cent on all over $7000.This compares with the rates prevailing Monday of 1 1/2 per cent on the first $4000, 3 per cent on the next $4000 and 5 per cent on all over $8000.Proposed Surtaxes.
The surtax rates proposed would begin at 1 per cent on the sum between $13,000 and $15,000, and go up gradually to 20 per cent on all over $150,000. The surtax rates as set out in the schedule are:

One per cent, $13,000 to $15,000.
Two per cent, $15,000 to $17,000.
Three per cent, $17,000 to $19,000.
Four per cent, $19,000 to $21,000.
Five per cent, $21,000 to $23,000.
Six per cent, $23,000 to $25,000.
Seven per cent, $25,000 to $30,000.
Eight per cent, $30,000 to $35,000.
Nine per cent, $35,000 to $40,000.
Ten per cent, $40,000 to $45,000.
Eleven per cent, $45,000 to $50,000.
Twelve per cent, $50,000 to $60,000.
Thirteen per cent, $60,000 to $70,000.
Fourteen per cent, $70,000 to $80,000.
Fifteen per cent, $80,000 to $90,000.
Sixteen per cent, $90,000 to $100,000.
Seventeen per cent, $100,000 to $110,000.
Eighteen per cent, $110,000 to $125,000.
Nineteen per cent, $125,000 to $150,000.
Twenty per cent, all over $150,000.

Business Men Heard.
Representatives of business and industry were in general accord yesterday in asking repeal of the estate and gift taxes, reduction of the surtax rates, and repeal of the provision permitting publicity of income tax returns.James A. Emery, spokesman for the National Association of Manufacturers, presented a program recommending reduction of the trust
tax from 6 to 4 per cent, repeal of the gift and estate taxes and the publicity section, and reduction of the excise levies.Before the committee today the American Bankers' Association
urged repeal of a provision under which the grantor of a trust is compelled to pay tax on the income of the trust if he retains power to revoke it.

FATHER AND SON
GET PRISON TERMS
FOR RUM RUNNINGU. S. Judge Davis, Addressing Priest Pleading for Them, Tells Him Italians
Must Obey Laws.EACH GIVEN YEAR
AND DAY, $2000 FINEThree Others Convicted of Engaging in Traffic Between Here and Indianapolis Sentenced.Five rum-runners, three of them Italians, who had operated by motor cars between St. Louis and Indianapolis, were sentenced to penitentiary terms today upon their pleas of guilty before Federal Judge Davis. To the Rev. Father
Caesar Spigardi, pastor of St.
Charles Borromeo Catholic Church, 2901 Locust street, who with an assistant priest had appeared to urge clemency for two of his parishioners, Judge Davis said:"I am glad you gentlemen are here in this case. It affords me
the opportunity of telling you that we have a good deal of trouble with your people. You ought to go home and tell your people
that they should obey the laws of this country or leave it. If they come to this country they should come prepared to obey
our laws, or if they feel that they cannot obey our laws they should remain at home."The United States is big enough to enforce its laws and the courts of this country. I feel are going to do that thing.
"These people are throwing a shadow over your race that it will take a century to live down." Father Spigardi had addressed
the court in behalf of Anthony Sansone, a former fruit dealer, and his son, Frank, two of the defendants, the priest remarking that he had known the elder Sansone for 24 years and had found him to be a good, honest and charitable individual. Remarks along the same line were made by Father Spigardi's assistant.Judge Davis turned to the other three defendants, Donald Underwood, Mike Bessie and Jack Herdricks, all of Indianapolis, and asked them if they had ever been convicted. Underwood said he had served 60 days in jail; Bessie, 90 days, and Herdricks, six months.Has Only First Papers.
Responding to a question by the court, the elder Sansone said he had taken out only his first naturalization papers."That is the situation," Judge Davis remarked. "Here is a man who came here, raised a family,
did well in business and became wealthy, yet was never sufficiently interested in the Government to seek citizenship."A Samuel Bender, counsel for the five men, made a special plea
for clemency, and in mentioning Sansone said he was a man of substance, of high standing in the community and a church member who had reared a large family.Judge Davis then sentenced Sansone and his son each to one year and a day in Leavenworth prison and fined them $2000 each. Underwood, Bessie and Herdricks
each were sentenced to two years and fined $2000.Two other men, jointly charged in the same case, and who plead not guilty and their trials were set for Friday. They are Carmello and Jack Cuneo.House Is Raided.
The arrest of the Sansones followed the detention March 23, last,
of Bud Phillips and Elmer Stanton
by police in the 4200 block of Manchester avenue. Phillips and Stanton were in charge of an auto truck bearing an Indiana license and containing cases of alcohol. Frank Sansone drove up at the time and offered to go on the bonds of the men. Phillips and Stanton were held for the Federal authorities,
and on information obtained from them, the Sansones were arrested and Federal agents raided a house at Tenth and Wash streets, where a still and plant set up to reclaim denatured alcohol were found.A garage at Herford street and Shaw avenue also was raided, and 2400 cases of alcohol confiscated.
This raid brought the Cuneos into the case. Another man, Joseph Gentile, was indicted, but the charges were quashed because raiders
were without a search warrant.Finger Watches at Monte Carlo.

WARRANT CHARGESLieut. F. C. Nelson, Army Flying Instructor, Faces Arrest
Under U. S. Game Laws.By the Associated Press.
JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 21.—
Lieut. Fred C. Nelson, United States Army Air Service instructor for the 110th Air Squadron of the Missouri National Guard, faces arrest as the result of a warrant issued by United States Commissioner F. J. Fromme in Federal Court here. The aviator is charged with "driving, killing and capturing a Canadian goose from and with the aid of an airplane."The complaint was filed by Federal Game Warden Harry Barmeler
after complaint of citizens of Calla-way County, across the Missouri River near this city. Nelson was flying with a passenger on Oct. 31, 1924, it is alleged, when he drove his plane into a flock of geese.
It is further stated that a landing was made to recover the goose
and that the plane was damaged.
As State game laws did not cover
the case, Federal authorities were called into the investigation.Lieut. Nelson was recently transferred from St. Louis to Fort Riley, Kan., as an air instructor. The transfer is effective Nov. 1.Lieut. Nelson, who is at Little Rock, on temporary duty with a National Guard air squadron, declined to discuss the charge when reached by telephone today.LARGEST LANDOWNER IN SCOTLAND TO LIVE IN U. S.Sir Charles Ross Says America Is

Revolution.Copyright, 1935, by The Press and Publishing Co., Inc., New York, N. Y., and Post-Dispatch.
LONDON, Oct. 21.—Sir Charles Ross, the largest land owner in the United Kingdom, who possesses
more than 400,000 acres in Scotland and is the seventh baronet in the direct line, told Valentine Worthington, an American attorney, solitorious, that he is going to live in New York and invest all his money in the United States, as "America is the only country safe from a revolution."Sir Charles, 55, by his wife, who was Patricia Ellison of Louisville, Ky., on grounds of misconduct with Mrs. Frederick Dalziel of New York, an African hunting trip in 1921, is contesting the jurisdiction of the Scotch court over him, as he claims to be a resident of the United States.And why he didn't settle down on his vast Scottish estates after making a fortune in Canada, Ross replied:"Scotland is an adorable place,
but no place to live in to make money."The hearing was adjourned. The petition of Lady Ross is being resisted on its merits by both Ross
and the co-respondent.TREASURY PLANS NEW DOLLAR MADE OF GOLD AND SILVERSubstitute for $1 Bill Desired by Banking and Merchandising Interests.Special to the Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—A proposed failure to popularize the silver dollar and the $2 bill, Treasury officials virtually have decided to mint a new coin, a combination gold and silver dollar, because of the rapid deterioration of paper money.The proposed new coin will be of distinctive appearance, possibly a gold center with a rim of silver,
and will be slightly larger than a quarter. Banking and merchandising interests which handle large sums of money have indicated that such a substitute for the dollar bill would be desirable.Those who prefer the dollar bill
still will be able to obtain them, Treasury officials point out, but the paper dollar has a life of only six to 10 months.CLOUDY TONIGHT, THEN FAIR;

LICENSING URGED FOR PREVENTIVE HEALTH WORKERS

Dr. W. A. Evans Says Insecurity of Office Gives Jobs to Undertakers and Hat Buyers.

BIG PERSONNEL SHORTAGE CITED

On Basis of 113,000,000 Population, 5650 Health Units of Five Persons Each Are Needed.

As doctors and surgeons are licensed by governmental authority to practice curative medicine upon a showing of qualifications, so in the realm of preventive medicine that army of health workers—sanitary engineers, laboratorians and especially community public health officials—may shortly be recognized upon a professional plane.

Licensure of these "doctors of preventive medicine," based upon fixed standards of qualifications and training, is surely coming, say the authorities gathered at the fifty-fourth annual convention of the American Public Health Association at Hotel Statler.

An aroused public opinion will demand it, they declare, and the results, when the higher standards are met, will constitute an immeasurable contribution to the nation's health.

These conclusions were emphatically expressed by speakers at a general session last night of the entire membership of the Association, which has a registration in excess of 800, representative of the entire country and Canada.

The speakers were Dr. John A. Farrell of New York, director of the Rockefeller Foundation; Hugh S. Cumming, surgeon general of the United States Public Health Service; and Dr. W. A. Evans, health official of Chicago.

Trained Personnel Shortage. There is a shortage of trained personnel, asserted Dr. Farrell, who presented a summary of survey made by the Foundation as to the nation's needs. "A staff of 290 county health organizations in 32 states was made the basis of the computation.

"For the purposes of the present estimate," said Dr. Farrell, "twenty thousand individuals may be regarded as constituting a satisfactory unit for local health organization. This unit should consist of a medical health officer, two public health nurses, a sanitary inspector and a stenographer-clerk. Counting the nation's population as 113,000,000, there would be needed 5650 such health units. On this basis the country needs 5650 health officers, 11,300 public health nurses, 5650 sanitary officers and 5650 office assistants."

Clerical personnel and sanitary inspectors can usually be trained locally, and there is no shortage of any great shortage in the supply of sanitary engineers or technicians, said Dr. Farrell. But there is, he continued, "a most urgent need" for qualified health officers and public health nurses.

Health Officers Needed. "There is a need for 7000 health officers and a supply of 1300," he asserted. "According to my estimates, 14,000 public health nurses are needed for official health agencies and the present shortage is 9000. The Public Health Nursing Association estimates the present need for public health nurses for all purposes as 50,000, with a present supply of only 12,000."

To supply this shortage, Dr. Farrell enumerated various methods and appeals of training schools, now in vogue, but which he suggested as being inadequate. However, he concluded that "the outlook for public health work in the United States is encouraging. There is a tendency to improve the quality and quantity of health work. Young men and young women of the best type are hearing more from formerly of the opportunities for careers in public health."

Dr. Evans declared that Illinois has 2000 public health officers, a comparatively few of whom are trained men. "Many of them have no particular interest in public health work," he said. "Some of them are doctors, some undertakers and some hat buyers." For this situation, Dr. Evans blamed largely the insecurity of the work, the unstable tenure of office.

ENGLISH BARON DEAD

LORD RIBBLESDALE.

LORD RIBBLESDALE DIES

IN LONDON HOME AT 71

His Widow Was First Wife of Late John Jacob Astor, Whom He Married in 1919.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—Lord Ribblesdale died today. His widow is the former Mrs. John Jacob Astor, to whom he was married in 1919.

Lord Ribblesdale was born in 1854. His widow, prior to her marriage to Col. Astor, who was lost on the Titanic, was Ava Willing of Philadelphia. Col. Astor's second wife is now Mrs. William Dick of New York.

Lord Ribblesdale had three daughters by his first wife, formerly Charlotte Monckton, but left no heir to his title. His first wife died in 1911.

Plans start to remove some of this political uncertainty.

R. S. Patterson, member of the Examination Board of the Department of Health in New Jersey, described its plan of licensure, alone among all the states.

Tells of Examining Food Handlers

It is somewhat illogical to insist that the surroundings in which food is handled be clean and fail to demand the same thing of the persons handling it, Dr. Louis B. Gloyne, health officer of Kansas City, Kan., pointed out in a report to the Industrial Hygiene section today on four years' experience with an ordinance requiring examination of food handlers to check spread of disease.

"The examination eliminates persons who are in the active stage of tuberculosis, and who are constantly giving off live tubercle bacilli," Dr. Gloyne said. "Such individuals are not uncommon around food establishments where no examination is required. Can anyone cite any sanitary condition around a food establishment which is so apt to aid in the transmission of tuberculosis as a person who is keeping the organism at the proper temperature and giving them off in a live, virulent form with enough moisture to insure their delivery in good condition to new fields of destruction?"

He cited the "horrible examples" of butchers and grocers who smeared their aprons and then used the garment to wipe the scales, and of a waitress who carried over a diseased arm a towel she used to wipe plates.

"Intestinal diseases, including typhoid fever, but more especially the acute food infections, are frequently spread through the food establishments," he continued. "In this particular group of diseases, the sanitary condition of the food probably plays a more important role than does the physical examination of the personnel, but nevertheless one must keep constantly on the alert for the detection of typhoid fever carriers."

"The prevention of spread of the respiratory diseases other than tuberculosis has made little headway. If we succeed all or most of us are inspecting the inanimate objects of the food establishments, the personnel also must only a passing importance to the possibility of spreading disease themselves. Some have thought that if they only kept their place clean, so far as

HERE'S WHAT YOU'LL PAY UNDER NEW TAX MEASURE

Substantial Reductions on Small Incomes as Well as Large in Levies Proposed by Treasury Department

By LAVID LAWRENCE.

A Special Washington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

(Copyright, 1925.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Members of the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives are finding that the tables of figures presented by the Treasury Department make substantial reductions in small as well as large incomes. There have been 25 changes in the rates since Secretary of the Treasury Mellon appeared before the committee but any set of figures depends always on what deductions are taken into account.

There is a table which shows the total tax payable under the present law and the total tax that would be payable if the treasury rates are adopted by Congress.

The table includes normal as well as surtaxes and is based on the income of a married man without dependents:

Income.	Present Law.	Proposed Law.
$150,000.....	$44,117.50	$25,995
2,000.....	7.50	5
4,000.....	22.50	15
5,000.....	37.50	25
6,000.....	52.50	35
7,000.....	67.50	45
8,000.....	82.50	55
9,000.....	97.50	65
10,000.....	112.50	75
15,000.....	167.50	105
20,000.....	207.50	135
25,000.....	247.50	165
30,000.....	287.50	195
35,000.....	327.50	225
40,000.....	367.50	255
45,000.....	407.50	285
50,000.....	447.50	315
55,000.....	487.50	345
60,000.....	527.50	375
65,000.....	567.50	405
70,000.....	607.50	435
75,000.....	647.50	465
80,000.....	687.50	495
85,000.....	727.50	525
90,000.....	767.50	555
95,000.....	807.50	585
100,000.....	847.50	615
125,000.....	937.50	695
150,000.....	1,027.50	775

Naturally, these rates are subject to debate in Congress, and it would not be surprising to see a number of changes, yet the tendency of Congress is to cut the rates still lower and not add to them. The table may be regarded as a fair index within round figures of what finally will be the law.

REPUBLICAN NAMED TO FILL RALSTON'S SEAT IN SENATE

ARTHUR R. ROBINSON, Indianapolis Attorney, Is Supporter of Coolidge Administration.

By the Associated Press.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 21.—Arthur R. Robinson, Indianapolis attorney, has been appointed United States Senator by Gov. Jackson to serve in the place of the late Samuel M. Ralston until the 1926 general election. Whole-hearted supporter of the administration of President Coolidge, Robinson is an influential factor in Robinson's choice. Robinson pleaded his allegiance to the national administration, and this was echoed in the Governor's announcement, made last night.

The appointee is 44 years old, was born in Ohio and has been a resident of Indiana for 21 years. He is a former State Senator and an army officer in the world war. He was for nearly two years Judge of a County Court under recess appointment.

In 1922 he ran for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate, being defeated by Albert J. Beveridge and running appreciably behind Harry S. New, now Postmaster-General.

Ralston was a Democrat, having declined Beveridge.

BICYCLE THIEF COULDN'T RIDE

Owder and Policeman Overtake Man Giving Six Names.

A man who could not ride a bicycle tried to steal one yesterday. He mounted it at Jefferson avenue and Herbert street, and every 20 feet or so he fell off and remounted. The owner, Raymond Tenge, 2521 West Herbert street, sought out Patrolman Downey, who commanded an automobile and pursued.

At Twenty-fifth and Palm streets the bicycle was overtaken just as the man was remounting again. Downey took the man to North Market Street Station, where he gave six different names and as many addresses. He had been drinking.

er to vest himself of title. Chairman of the Representative Garner declared repeal of these provisions would leave a large loophole for tax evasion. Garner suggested trust creators might protect themselves by inserting clauses in trusts requiring beneficiaries to pay the tax.

O. K. Davis, representing the National Foreign Trade Council, asked for exemption from taxation of incomes of American citizens resident in foreign countries and engaged in the promotion of American foreign trade.

Permission for partnerships to elect to be taxed as corporations was proposed by William S. Bennett, speaking for the Chicago Stock Exchange. Representative Mills, Republican, New York, suggested there was no stopping place on such a suggestion.

Charles O'Connor Hennessey of New York, appearing for the United States League of Local Building and Loan Associations, proposed that exemptions allowed incomes from investments in building and loan associations be increased from $300 to $500. This exemption applies when profits of organizations are returned entirely to investors.

After it had been determined that the invention was patentable, further litigation began as to prior right in the invention, but this, too, was eventually settled in Dr. Langmuir's favor.

It is estimated there are more than 10,000,000 tubes embodying the invention now in operation in the United States.

EVANGELIST WINS CONVERTS AT JAIL

Nine Clayton Prisoners, Two of Them Accused of Murder, Join in Prayers.

About 50 prisoners scrawled in various postures in the upper tier of cells in the jail at Clayton yesterday afternoon, waiting for Howard S. Williams, the evangelist. In the posture of each there was the reflection of the monotonous indolence of jail life. A few others banteringly asked their companions if "they were going to hit the trail and reform."

Then Williams hurried in. Gripping the bars with his hands, his chin face flanked by the rods of steel, he began, "Boys," he said, "I'm a square shooter. You gotta believe that on the jump off. I did plenty to put me where you are, before I was 'born' again. There was a crowdin' behind Williams were 50 women, members of local churches.

With them they had an organ, a violin, and hymn books. The dark old jail rang with the hymns, "The Old Time Religion." There was the peal of the organ. Then Williams talked again.

Nine Profess Conversion. A half hour later nine of the prisoners, two of them charged with murder, announced they had been converted. They prayed aloud.

"What you boys need," Williams resumed, "is Christ to come down and knock hell out of you. He knocks hell out of you by knocking the bad out. It doesn't hurt! It makes you happy. Don't think religion is the thing for a sissy. Christ was the manliest man who ever lived."

"I don't care and He doesn't care if you are a murderer, a second-story man, a safe-cracker, gangster, thief, or what variety of 'red hot' you are. The worse you are the more you need it. Does some thing hurt inside of you? I can show you how to chase it away. This is your chance, your opportunity. You can go out of here a better man than lots of preachers if you will only listen to the Lord. Just remember, we on the outside are just as bad as you. Only you got caught."

There was a prayer. Another hymn. Williams continued. Henry Sadler, 61 years old, charged with chicken stealing, was the first to break down. He asked Williams to pray for him. Then came Roosevelt Warren, a 19-year-old negro charged with murder. He prayed long and lustily. Then Paul

The women trooped out following him, leaving the prisoners alone save for three reporters and a deputy sheriff. The prisoners were still for perhaps a full minute. Then they relaxed, picking up magazines and lying down.

"Aw, hell," one of them finally said. "I gotta wash a shirt."

Two Stones Not Insured.

Pecora's statement brought out that the jewel thief lighted on a lucky moment or was cunningly waited for it. The two fine strings of rose-colored pearls were completed, just the day before the theft, with two middle stones costing $45,000; these were not covered by the insurance.

"Mr. Donahue's share of the $45,000 ran some 10 per cent of the value of these two stones," remarked Pecora. "I am told the man has not yet been paid."

The statement read in part: "Mr. Scaffa told me a week ago in the presence of Inspector Coughlin, Detective Coleman, Mr. Donahue and the latter's attorney that on the morning of Tuesday, Oct. 6, he received a telephone call from an unknown man who asked him if he was interested in the return of the stolen Donahue jewelry. Mr. Scaffa said he was, as private detective for the Federal Insurance Co. The unknown man asked if any reward would be paid for the return of the jewelry and Mr. Scaffa told the unknown man

HEARING ON TAXABILITY OF OPEN ACCOUNTS NOV. 3

Conflicting Opinions of Attorney-General's Office and St. Louis C. of C. to Be Presented.

The question of whether merchants and manufacturers in Missouri must return for the purpose of taxation their cash, bills receivable and open accounts will be argued before Attorney-General Otto in his Jefferson City office, Nov. 3. It will be recalled that the Attorney-General's Office recently issued an opinion that such returns were obligatory, whereupon counsel for the Associated Industries ruled that they were not. Gladly Joseph H. Hays, general counsel for the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce, then conferred with Attorney-General Otto, who granted the hearing on Arnold's request.

MAN FINED $25 AS GAMBLER

Joseph Henry Pleads Guilty to Operating Wheel at Democratic Rally. Joseph Hays pleaded guilty yesterday before Justice of the Peace Werremeyer at Clayton to a charge of operating a roulette wheel at a recent Democratic rally at the home of David Israel on Clayton road, where Senator Reed spoke. He was fined $25 and costs.

Two Brothers Stabbed to Death.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., Oct. 21.—Believed to have been shot and stabbed by robbers, Thomas and Joseph Ervin, brothers, were found dead today on their farm at Jamison Corner, near here. The brothers lived alone. Joseph was about 52 years old and Thomas 50. Nathan Ervin said his brothers had no enemies to his knowledge and he was unable to say whether they had kept any considerable amount of money about the house.

There are 81 stop-go signals now in operation in all parts of the city, and official say requests continue to come in for signals at other places. However, there have been objections to them, too, and the Automobile Club of Missouri has been inquiring into their usefulness. Two signals which are in place are not operating. One, at Grand and St. Louis, is disconnected because of sewer work. The other, at Kingshighway and Maryland, was ordered disconnected by Mayor Miller, who thought it unnecessary.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS ARE TO BE INVESTIGATED

Judge Mix Says There Are too Many, and Instructs Grand Jury to Act.

Circuit Judge Mix thinks there are too many automatic traffic signals in the stop-go variety in St. Louis, and yesterday he instructed the grand jury to investigate what he called their indiscriminate use at places where they do no good.

The Traffic Council has no authority to order these signals installed, the judge declared, saying that such authority is given by the ordinance as given by the Peace Council by the Board of Aldermen.

Judge Gayer of the Court of Criminal Correction has ruled that the Council similarly has no authority to make parking rules. As a result of enforcement of the Council's stop-go signals, Judge Mix added, many citizens are being arrested falsely and fined.

Among the intersections where there are no needless stop-go signals, Judge Mix named Newstead and Lindell, Twenty-first and Locust and Clara and Page. The signal at Newstead and Lindell was the first installed in the city.

There are 81 stop-go signals now in operation. In all parts of the city, and officials say requests continue to come in for signals at other places. However, there have been objections to them, too, and the Automobile Club of Missouri has been inquiring into their usefulness. Two signals which are in place are not operating. One at Grand and St. Louis, is disconnected because of sewer work. The other, at Kingshighway and Maryland, was broken disconnected by Mayor Miller, who thought it unnecessary.

$65,000 PAID BY INSURANCE AGENTS FOR STOLEN GEMS

Private Detective Says He Was Medium Through Which Donahue Jewels Were Recovered.

PART OF $683,000 LOOT NOT RETURNED

Police Trying to Find Out Who Got Money, but Detective Can't Give Definite Clue.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The District Attorney's time limit for the return of the $683,000 Donahue loot expired last night. The closed auction for jewel thieves stopped. The District Attorney's office gave out the story of Noel Scaffa, former Pinkerton man, who had handed $65,000 for return of the pearls and diamonds.

The case was ordered before the grand jury. James P. Donahue and his wife, the Westworth heiress, were subpoenaed and went before the grand jury today.

Ferdinand Pecora, assistant District Attorney, divulged Scaffa's story when the private detective's work of grace expired and left the gem thief still at large. The mystery was thickened. Scaffa's story puts another Mr. X on the roster of well-known unknowns. The newsmen are Sam Layton, whom Scaffa met according to Pecora's announcement, in the Prince George Hotel a week after the robbery.

The New York World and the Post-Dispatch learned last night that Scaffa's detective agency is patronized by the Prince George Hotel. N. M. Gutterman, manager of the hotel, said that Scaffa has a partner, J. A. Williams, who has lived at the hotel for many months. The house detective were furnished by Scaffa's agency. The books showed no record of a room let to Scaffa Oct. 6 or 7 when he says he took Sam Layton to a room which he obtained for the gem negotiations.

Gutterman said Scaffa could have used Williams' room, or taken a room for two or three hours "for conference" without registering.

But this is the first intelligence of Scaffa's interest in the hotel business. Formerly he was identified as a private detective for Chubb & Son, agents for the Federal Insurance Co., which often written a policy for the Donahue pearls.

Looking for Sam Layton.
Last night Pecora said: "We'd like to get hold of Sam Layton. We feel his arrest would break the whole case."
Inspector John D. Coughlin, head of the detective division, who called on Pecora, was asked if his men were after Layton and replied: "You bet they're after him."
And Scaffa affirmed that he, too, was after Layton.

Police recalled frequent attempts of thieves to turn over loot for ransom or reward. They said it was being done regularly. There is a traditional police procedure. The crook is let on. There is a plant. Marked money is used. Detectives are concealed in nearby rooms. Dictaphones are frequently installed. All this goes on quietly to claim suspicion. And at the moment of transaction the crook is collared.

According to Scaffa's story, Sam Layton met him in the hotel lobby. Police headquarters are not far off and in three directions are police stations.

By Gutterman's statement, there was presumably one or more men from the Scaffa agency in the hotel. Layton was apparently without fear. Pecora said the man walked into the room obtained by Scaffa. He drew out a paper parcel containing two strings of pearls and other stones. Scaffa was satisfied they were not spurious. He drew from his pocket $65,000 and passed it over. Layton walked out.

Two Stones Not Insured.
Pecora's statement brought out that the jewel thief lighted on a lucky moment or had cunningly waited for it. The two fine strings of rose-colored pearls were completed, just the day before the theft, with two middle stones costing $40,000; these were not covered by the insurance.

"Mr. Donahue's share of the $683,000 ran some 10 per cent of the value of these two stones," remarked Pecora. "I am told the sum has not yet been paid."
The statement read in part: "Mr. Scaffa told me a week ago in the presence of Inspector Coughlin, Detective Coleman, Mr. Donahue and the latter's attorney that on the morning of Tuesday, Oct. 6, he received a telephone call from an unknown man who asked him if he was interested in the return of the stolen Donahue jewelry. Mr. Scaffa said he was, as a private detective for the Federal Insurance Co. The unknown man asked if any reward would be paid for the return of the jewelry and Mr. Scaffa told the unknown man

Actress Being Sued for $100,000

WILDA BENNETT.

WILDA BENNETT SUIT FOR ALIENATION OPENS

'Handsome Charley' Frey Sits Beside Actress, Accused by His Wife.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A legal drama of conflict between two women over the affections of the husband of one of them, is being unfolded in the Supreme Court in Mineola in the trial of the $100,000 alienation action brought by Mrs. Katherine M. Frey against Wilda Bennett, musical comedy actress.

The case was begun before Justice Faber and a jury yesterday. The high-priced affections are those of Charles C. Frey, sportsman and race horse owner. He is in court yesterday afternoon, sitting most of the time beside Miss Bennett, apparently enjoying the proceedings. He heard himself described as "Handsome Charley Frey from Kentucky, dazzled by a snatched pet of Broadway." Mrs. Frey's lawyer said that Frey told a friend that he would sue for divorce in Paris before his wife knew anything about it.

Mrs. Frey sat alone in the rear. In his opening statement, Mrs. Frey's attorney, Elvin Edwards, pictured the actress as a love pirate who saw Frey, wanted him, and kept after him until she won him. The lawyer recited that the Freys had been childhood sweethearts in Louisville. They were living happily together in New York when Frey met Miss Bennett and she lured him away. The attorney declared that Frey was running a fashionable gambling house in New York and another in Saratoga where he first met Miss Bennett. He said the actress frequently took Frey riding in a Ford. Once, he said, Mrs. Frey protested when she saw the red rooster parked in front of her home and Frey knocked her downstairs. Frey left his wife in July, 1923, to live in Miss Bennett's Long Island home, counsel said, and there he discharged all of Miss Bennett's servants and hired new ones. William J. Fallon, attorney for Miss Bennett, ridiculed Edwards' recital, characterizing it as "a great literary piece of fiction."

"We will show," Fallon said, "that Mrs. Frey left her husband long before he saw Miss Bennett, that a definite break already existed in the household and that Mrs. Frey sued her husband for divorce, naming two well-known New York actresses, long before either she or Frey knew Miss Bennett."

FRENCH QUIT ADVANCED POST
By the Associated Press.
FEZ, French Morocco, Oct. 21.—The French outpost at Sidi Bourokba, 12 miles south of Ajdir, former capital of Abd-el-Krim, was evacuated yesterday. The French captured Sidi Bourokba Oct. 10 and it marked the northernmost point of their advance. The difficulty of bringing up supplies since the beginning of the rainy season given as the cause of the evacuation.

The troops occupying this outpost retired 25 miles southeast of Ajdir, where they will take up winter quarters. Two French columns today carried out an operation in the 121 Ribane sector, and completely surrounded a mountain range. This operation is designed to punish the Beni Oulaghiel tribesmen and to surround the Djebel Gersaoud, the last rebel stronghold in this sector.

200 PIE MACHINE-BUYERS MEET AND VOICE COMPLAINTS

Committee Appointed to Receive Evidence to Be Laid Before State and Federal Authorities.

The auditorium of the Public Library, where groups occasionally meet to discuss the fine arts and world affairs, yesterday echoed to sad tales of the pie and sandwich marts.

Two hundred investors in "Sunny Jim" food vending machines assembled there, each bringing at least one complaint. Those who paid for machines which were not delivered were bitter against the Automat Sales Co., which took their money and went into receivership. Those who received the machines but found them useless without pies and sandwiches, were bitter toward the Automat Service Co., which contracted to supply the machines for 10 years but gave up after seven months and went into bankruptcy.

It was a bitter afternoon. An impassioned speech. One speaker said he had paid for four machines. He got a laugh from those who had bought from one. Another said he had paid for 10 and received six. But the champion victim of the day was an Easton avenue merchant.

"How many?" asked the chairman. "Sixteen, that's all," was the reply. "I want my money back and I want it right now." The speaker made an impassioned speech, full of flat-shaking, but devoted wines of fellow victims assured him no one in the room had his money.

The runner-up was a woman who paid for 15 machines. Women, many of them proprietors of confectioneries and other small shops on which their livelihood depended, formed half of the assemblage. The machines were sold for $125 to $250 each to grocers, pharmacies, filling stations, factories and wherever the automat sales staffs spread their eloquence. Twelve hundred were installed in St. Louis, and as many more were paid for but not delivered.

'Coming and Going.'
A white-haired man rose and told the audience he was in "the humiliating position of having bought some machines and sold some." They were the last of Leathe's real estate holdings.

Among the creditors listed in Mrs. Leathe's petition are: Henry Leschen of St. Louis, $200,000; Scottish Rite Cathedral Association of St. Louis, $25,000; Samuel B. Zittle, Chicago, $123,000 on a loan; Untermyer & Mayer, New York attorneys, $10,000; R. C. Woods and J. M. Larimer, Chicago lawyers, $5000 each.

Harry J. Leschen, president of A. Leschen & Sons Rope Co. and son of Henry Leschen, said today that his father had had no actual claim against the Leathe estate. He expressed the opinion that the $200,000 represented only a contingent liability growing out of a real estate transaction and long forgotten as having nothing but a theoretical value.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Restoration in the new revenue law of the requirements of civil service status for deputy collectors of internal revenue is urged by Robert Catherwood, president of the National Civil Service Reform League, in a letter to Commissioner of Internal Revenue Blair. Catherwood charged that since the act of 1913 giving revenue collectors unrestricted power of appointment in selecting deputies they have manipulated positions to make room for political favorites. Since 1914, he said, the number of deputies has increased from 712 to 4294.

60 Days for Passing Bad Check.
George W. Wilson was sentenced to 60 days in the workhouse today for passing a worthless check for $25 at the National Bank of Commerce. He represented himself as a former Salvation Army officer coming to St. Louis from Chicago to help in a Community Chest drive.

Mrs. Aileen Smith, 27 years old, of 1552 Mississippi avenue, drank poison at her home last night. At City Hospital she was said to be in a critical condition.

GRACE A. LEATHE BROKE; HER DEBTS TOTAL $859,000

Widow of St. Louisian Inherited His Estate, Once Estimated at Approximately $300,000.

Mrs. Grace A. Leathe, once known as "the wealthiest widow in St. Louis," is broke.

Out of $3,000,000 left by her husband, Samuel H. Leathe, 18 years ago, she has only $600. Her debts total $859,280.

This statement of her financial condition was contained in a voluntary petition in bankruptcy filed today at Chicago. Unfortunate real estate investments and the expenses of continuous litigation were the chief means by which the inheritance was depleted.

In Near Destitution.
Mrs. Leathe is living in near destitution in a small room at the Metropolitan Hotel, Chicago. She is 58 years old, but declared today that in spite of her age she was not discouraged.

"I once made a million operating railroads and mines in Southern Illinois," Mrs. Leathe said, as she sat in a tiny rocker in her room, "and I'll do it again. I am no cow-tender. I will go to work and build up a business for myself."

Leathe, by whom the estate was amassed, was an eccentric realty broker and art connoisseur. He died here in 1907. He was about 40 years older than his wife and was her third husband.

Three parcels of property in the neighborhood of Twentieth and Washington avenue, where Leathe had had considerable holdings, were sold at auction from the courthouse steps here last June for $242,000 despite Mrs. Leathe's protest. They were the last of Leathe's real estate holdings.

Among the creditors listed in Mrs. Leathe's petition are: Henry Leschen of St. Louis, $200,000; Scottish Rite Cathedral Association of St. Louis, $25,000; Samuel B. Zittle, Chicago, $123,000 on a loan; Untermyer & Mayer, New York attorneys, $10,000; R. C. Woods and J. M. Larimer, Chicago lawyers, $5000 each.

Hopper and Sixth Bride Congratulated by No. 3

"She Is a Better Girl Than I Am," Wires Edna Wallace Hopper to Her Former Husband.

WEDS STAGE STAR

MRS. DE WOLF HOPPER.

By the Associated Press.
SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 21.—News that De Wolf Hopper at 69 had taken a sixth bride in Hartford reached Edna Wallace Hopper, the comedian's third wife, in her dressing room here last night and she immediately wired her former spouse. "Heartiest congratulations to you and the bride. She is a better girl than I am."

"He is the marrying kind, all right," his former bride commented, "and he is a wonderful man. It is one thing to catch De Wolf Hopper, but it certainly is another thing to hold him in the bonds of matrimony."

Miss Hopper's own matrimonial prospects are excellent. She is declaring "I have a proposal now from a French count who would make Gloria Swanson's little marquis look cheap. I would fly to him now if it were not for my contract. The only thing I don't like about him is that he is 69 years old." The actress herself admits to 62 years.

OAKLAND, Cal., Oct. 21.—Lillian Glaser, who became the sixth wife of De Wolf Hopper yesterday, was the widow of Dr. Emil Glaser, Oakland dentist, who died during the influenza epidemic of 1918. She sang here a few years ago as a member of the San Francisco Comic Opera Co., and was in concert work in the East when she met Hopper.

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 21.—De Wolf Hopper, comedian, took his sixth wife yesterday. Shortly after he arrived from Boston he married Lillian Glaser, 29 years old. Probate Judge Walter H. Clark, officiated. Miss Glaser said her home is in Oakland, Cal. The fifth Mrs. Hopper, known on the stage as Hilda Hopper, obtained a divorce Jan. 29, 1924.

TWO VISITORS STABBED AT HOUSE ON DELMAR

Unidentified Man Attacks Earl Tromley and Dr. June B. Lohan.

A West Virginia physician attending the American Public Health Association convention here and a California accountant were stabbed early today by an unidentified man in the hallway of a Delmar boulevard house.

They appeared at St. Luke's Hospital at 4 a. m. in a taxicab, the driver of which said he found them in the doorway of a store at 5102 Delmar. The accountant, Earl Tromley, 34 years old, of San Diego, had two wounds in the back, and the physician, Dr. June B. Lohan, was cut on the hands.

Tromley, whose condition is serious, told police that he and Dr. Lohan were visiting Mrs. Alice Smith at 5102A Delmar boulevard and were descending the stairs to leave when a man attacked them with a knife.

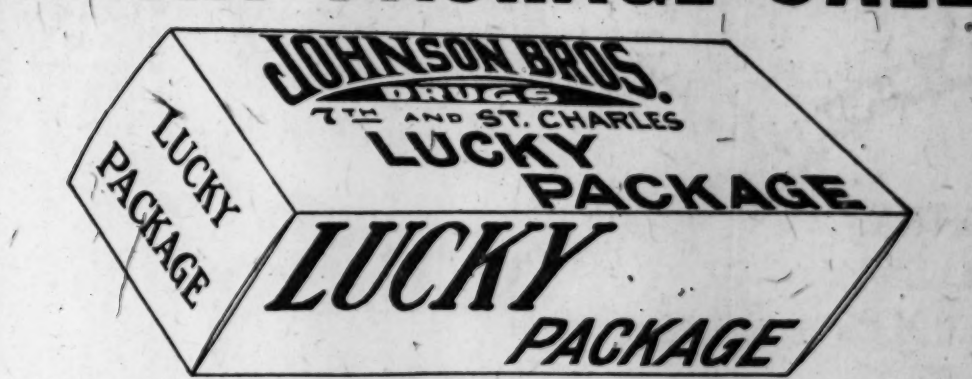

Dr. Lohan, at Hotel Statler today, was reticent. He said the hallway was dark. He said the man attacked Tromley and that he interfered to save his friend.

After guarding the house for several hours, police forced entrance and found that the occupants had departed. The place was rented in the name of Effie Smith.

ONE CHILD IN 4 FAILS DUE TO PHYSICAL ILLS

Dr. B. S. Veeder Cites Need for Attention Between Ages of 2 and 6.

Physical and closely allied mental defects cause failure of 25 children out of every 100 to win promotion at the end of the first school year, Dr. Borden S. Veeder, professor of clinical pediatrics in Washington University, declared today at a meeting of the child hygiene section of the American Public Health Association at Hotel Statler.

Dr. Veeder was discussing a dangerous gap in community efforts to safeguard against such defects; the period between 2 and 6 years of age, after the child is out of the care of baby clinics and before it has come under public school health supervision. So far, he said, the gap was proving a puzzle to eliminate.

Half a dozen cities, including St. Louis, were turning their attention to the problem, but had not yet been able to work out a finished system for bringing children of these ages under clinical attention and care. Dr. Veeder left up formulated the principles for organization of the work to emphasize the essentials for the examinations which was their object.

"The first examination," he stipulated, "must be a physical examination for the purpose of eliminating defects. Malnutrition, not simply underfeeding, but bad posture, flabbiness and other phases, will be found in 20 to 25 per cent of cases; adenoids or bad tonsils in 40 to 45 per cent, and bad teeth in 70 per cent."

"Secondly, the examination must be repeated a year later to check on the child's development. This should include an examination of mental progress. About 25 per cent of children fall of promotion at the end of the first school year. The basis for a large proportion of these failures is faulty physical and mental development in the pre-school years."

Touching another aspect of the problem, he added, "To wait until the school age to immunize against diphtheria is to leave the child unprotected during the most dangerous and susceptible period of its life."

Standard Pure Milk Tests Urged by L. C. Frank.

Unification of requirements for "pure milk" by universal enactment of a standard ordinance for city milk control such as the one recommended by the United States Public Health Service, adopted since by nine states and enacted by 40 cities, was advocated at today's session of the sanitary engineering section by Leslie C. Frank of the Public Health Service.

"Because of the lack of agreement among health officers the dairy industry has come to distrust the knowledge of the health officer in matters of milk sanitation," he said. "Its frequent unwillingness to obey milk sanitation ordinances is believed to be a reflection of this distrust. If the health officers of this country thought and acted more alike in matters of milk sanitation dairymen would be far more likely to respect their knowledge and carry out their laws."

"This lack of unity of thought is also disturbing to the morale of the consumer. The principal adviser of the consumer in matters of milk sanitation is the pediatrician, and the pediatrician has indicated his distrust of the control of the health officer by evolving 'certified milk' and by practically boycotting the general market supply."

"It is highly advisable that health officers regain the respect of the dairy industry and earn for the general market milk supply the confidence of the consumer. One effective means to this end would be the adoption of some one effective standard of control."

Was Drugged By Constipation Poisons

New York City Mr. Victor Stein writes—"I never realized why I went around with a dazed, dizzy feeling most of the time. My head would swim and hurt, my stomach easily became upset and food had no appeal. My whole body felt wrong. All this must have been due to the poisons of constipation getting into my system, for after taking your Carter's Little Liver Pills for a while, all these troubles have disappeared. Carter's Little Liver Pills cause the bowels to move in a gentle but effective manner. They are purely vegetable and free from habit-forming drugs. All druggists, 25c, red packages. Try them."

SAINT LOUIS WOMAN TELLS REMARKABLE STORY

Advises All Who Suffer from Stomach Trouble, Indigestion or Constipation to Try Herb Juice and Be Relieved as She Was.

MRS. ANNA FLEISCHER

"Your Herb Juice has done me so much good that I feel like an entirely different person and I feel it my duty to come down and join the throng of Herb Juice boosters," said Mrs. Anna Fleischer who resides at 1500 S. 7th St., Saint Louis, Mo., when she called to see the Herb Juice man very recently. "I certainly was the victim of considerable ailments before taking Herb Juice," continued Mrs. Fleischer. "I had dreadful backaches, dizziness, stomach trouble, indigestion, constipation, nervousness and my sleep was badly broken. It is useless for me to tell you that one with these varied ailments suffers considerably. My backaches, I think, were caused from my stomach, the headaches and dizziness were caused from constipation, and my nervousness, of course, came from my stomach. Regardless of what I took for these ailments, there was not anything that reached the seat of the trouble and removed the cause. I have had temporary relief from a number of remedies, but just as soon as I stopped taking them I was in just as bad condition as before. After reading so many testimonials of home folks who had taken Herb Juice and were praising it so highly, I decided to try it myself, and I am thankful to tell you that it has done more for me than all the other medicines and remedies that I have ever used combined. I don't feel that I will ever get through praising it, because it has done me so much good. My backaches and pains have all disappeared, constipation is gone; I can now digest my food properly and can sleep peacefully as my nervous system is again normal. I am sure that Herb Juice will do the same for anyone with similar ailments. That it has done for me and I urge everyone suffering as I did to try it."

Hundreds are now calling daily to see the Herb Juice man, who has established headquarters at Judge & Dolph Drug Co., 514 Washington avenue, giving statements for publication and praising Herb Juice, that their friends are induced to try the great remedy which is relieving so many sufferers in St. Louis.

ST. ANTHONY HOSPITAL FUND CAMPAIGN NEARLY FINISHED

Teams Will Make Special Effort to Raise Balance of $500,000 by Tomorrow Night.

Division commanders and team captains who are directing the city-wide canvass for a $500,000 building fund for St. Anthony's Hospital reported yesterday at a meeting at the City Club that all teams are making a special effort to complete the canvass in the next two days. The final report meeting will be held at 8:30 p. m. tomorrow at the City Club.

More than $100,000 had been raised Saturday when the last report luncheon was held, and most of the team captains at yesterday's meeting stated they would have substantial amounts to report at the closing dinner tomorrow.

Harry Scullin, general chairman of the campaign, said it would be impossible for workers to call upon everyone in the short time remaining before the close of the drive. "There probably are many people, who, recognizing the economic value of St. Anthony's to the community and the need for additional hospital facilities for persons of modest means, want to subscribe something toward this fund and are waiting for one of the campaign workers to call on them," said Scullin.

"Anyone desiring to help may mail in their pledges to the headquarters of the campaign, 201 City Club Building, or direct to St. Anthony's Hospital, Grand boulevard and Chilpew street.

"It is not necessary that cash be sent. Subscriptions may be paid in 10 quarterly installments, beginning Nov. 1."

HELD FOR KILLING TWO SONS Man Tries to End Life But Is Expected to Recover

NORWICH, Conn., Oct. 21.—A double murder and an attempted suicide were discovered here yesterday, when police, summoned by a neighbor, entered the home of Eugene J. Beery, 28 years old, and found Beery sitting in a chair with his throat cut. Beery led the officers to an adjoining room, where they found the bodies of his two sons, Eugene, 5 years old, and Joseph, 4 years old, on a bed. Police say Beery admitted that he had chloroformed the boys. Beery told the police his wife had left him yesterday after a quarrel. He is expected to recover.

EX-KING OF TRAMPS NOW STUDENT OF MAN

Ben Reitman, Head of Hobo College, Lays Crime to Heredity.

Dr. Ben Reitman, former "king of tramps," anarchist, 16-year associate of Emma Goldman and all-around apostle of cussedness, is in the city and proclaims his regeneration into "respectable citizen, reformer and sociological ecologist." That latter term needs some explanation. Dr. Reitman recognizes Ecology he defines as a botanical term relating to the study of environment upon plants. He now is engaged in the study of environment upon human beings, particularly of the class in which he found himself for 20 years—the hobo, tramp and migratory worker. He is conducting the Chicago College for Hoboes and in the college has set up a clinic which offers, and is used by Chicago medical colleges, hospitals and criminologists, to obtain material for the "sociological, pathological and psychological study of the genus tramp, as a contributor to crime."

Reitman believes that crime is largely a problem in heredity. Correction, he thinks, is the matter of penal institutions, but the discovery of inherited criminal tendencies soon enough to occupy youthful minds with something besides nightly assembly on street corners.

As for the modern tramp, Reitman says that the old-time bum of the comic weeklies, the visitant at kitchen doors, has disappeared and in his place has come the better-dressed "hitch-hiker" of the highways—including the coast-to-coast walker, male and female.

The automobile-traveling public does not recognize the hiker as a tramp. Reitman points out, nevertheless he is the modern-day tramp, with all the uneasy stringencies of the tattered hobo of the last generation, all the improvidence, all the tendencies to small crime. The old tramp stole food in extremity. The modern tramp, more skillful, steals the wherewith to buy food and clothes.

Reitman is attending the sessions of the American Public Health Association, and staying at Hotel Statler.

Store Robbers Get 7 Years.
POPULAR BLUFF, Mo., Oct. 21.—Jewel Hayes and Casimiro Bottino of Duquoin, Ill., were found guilty here last night of robbing the Slinger store at Fisk, in this county, and were sentenced to serve seven years each in the penitentiary. The robbery occurred on Sept. 7, when loot valued at about $1000 was taken.

ON EVERYMAN'S TONGUE— "FLORIDA!" —LAND OF SUNSHINE AND FORTUNE

Today Florida has become a national topic. Wherever one may go "Florida" is heard. At the Club, in the home, on the street, everywhere it's "Florida."

Thousands have just awakened to the great truth of Florida and are learning of the wonderful possibilities of the State for the first time. Leading newspapers and periodicals of the Nation have investigated Florida more closely than ever before, and have given the state more deserving publicity than it has ever had in its history. Reading and discussion of the many recent articles written about Florida, together with personal investigation by hundreds of the Nation's citizens have, it is said, divided the continent into three great classes: Those in Florida, those coming to Florida, and those who want to come to Florida.

Those in Florida know us as one of the State's leading Realtors; to those comprising the two latter named classes we wish to introduce ourselves.

Our firm is one of the old, established Real Estate firms of the State. For years we have served the investing public in Florida, and have come to know Florida Real Estate and values as but few others can. Our growth has kept pace with that of the State; our development has been as rapid and sure. Today we operate offices in thirteen cities and towns throughout

Florida, and maintain an organization departmentized and specialized in every city, capable of rendering a maximum of safe, conscientious and dependable Real Estate service in every individual transaction. We have built and cherish a reputation, and today enjoy the implicit confidence of innumerable patrons from every section of the United States and Canada. We have made money for hundreds of patrons who entrusted us with the handling of their Florida Real Estate investments.

The coming year will see millions of dollars made by investors in Florida Real Estate. Some of you who are coming to Florida will most probably share in the profits, and you who want to come to Florida, but cannot, unquestionably would like to share in them. We have assisted others and we can assist YOU. We KNOW Florida values, and can place your investments so as to bring you the largest and quickest returns.

When in Florida call at our office nearest the locality in which you are interested. If you cannot come to Florida, write our Executive Offices for information about any section of the State in which you are interested or would like to invest. We are pleased to give information and to render any assistance—our entire organization is at your service.

INQUIRY IN ALLEGED WASTE OF TEXAS ROAD FUNDS URGED

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 21.—A special session of the Texas Legislature may be called to investigate charges of reckless expenditures in the State Highway Department under the regime of Gov. Ma Ferguson.

In a statement from Washington last night, where he is on a tax reduction mission, Lee Satterwhite, speaker of the Texas House, declared that if the Governor did not call a special session he would.

Gov. Ferguson declared against a special session and challenged the malcontents to take their whips before a grand jury.

The executive wife of former Gov. James B. Ferguson, recently charged with dominating the State Highway Commission, declared she would summarily remove any State official proved in default of duty.

Meanwhile, the State is awaiting the result of an inquiry already being conducted by Attorney-General Moody, who is checking up the Highway Department's transactions. Satterwhite intimated his special session call would await the Attorney-General's report.

VATICAN NEGOTIATES LOAN IN NEW YORK

Obtains $1,500,000 Credit
There Because Italian Interest Rate Is Too High.

By the Associated Press.
ROME, Oct. 21.—A loan of $1,500,000 has been negotiated by the Vatican with American bankers for the purpose of purchasing the Villa Gabrielli, a large estate adjoining the Vatican.

The new American College is to be erected on this property, and Mgr. Burke, rector of the American College in Rome, is now in America to complete arrangements for the new institution.

An effort was made to obtain a loan from Italian banks, but their rate of interest was considered too high, and the Vatican accepted the offer of the Chase National Bank and Blair & Co. of New York to give credit at a lower rate.

COOLIDGE MAKES PLEA FOR MORE RELIGION IN U. S.

Tells Congregationalists
This Is Remedy for Criminal Tendencies Exaggerated as Result of War.

THINKS SENTIMENT
AS STRONG AS EVER

Cites as Proof of This Increasing Rectitude in Business and Growing Charities.

Post-Dispatch Bureau.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—President Coolidge suggested as remedies a deeper religious spirit and more wholesome sentiment for law observance.

He pointed last night to the inability of society to cope adequately by political methods with a situation such as that which has followed the war, although the enforcement of penalties, in his opinion, has a deterrent effect on the individual who considers wrongdoing.

But restraining the criminal is only treating the symptom, he said, and does not remove the disease. President Coolidge spoke at the Washington Auditorium before the annual council of Congregational churches, mentioning that he felt this address was in accordance with the proprieties of the occasion because of the belief that the Government must put growing reliance on the religious convictions of the people.

Mr. Coolidge made his remarks applicable to failure to enforce and disinclination to observe the prohibition laws, as well as to violence and the perversion of knowledge and science by misguided hands for the furtherance of crime. Some saw in the address a certain pessimism over the ability of the Government to handle prohibition unless public sentiment is aroused and a spiritual reawakening comes to the assistance of the Government.

Heritage of War.
"More thorough comprehension of our political and social institutions has rarely failed to produce a more loyal citizen," he said. "With experience, these who come to us as enemies of society are so because they have always found society enemies to them. Education in the elements and fundamentals of the American principles of human relationships has seldom failed to secure their allegiance."

President Coolidge's analysis of crime conditions led to the conclusion that they were a natural heritage of the war, and took new channels because of the complexity of modern life. Considerable curiosity was aroused by his reference, which went without explanation, that:

"Now occasions have been opened for the turning of the instrumentalities of government, which ought to be used for the public welfare, into the service of selfish and misguided interests."

Supposition was that he referred to prohibition scandals or to disclosures made by investigation committees of the last Congress.

Punishment Not a Cure.
The President said there was no form of education, government or reward "which will not fail," that "redemption must come through sacrifice and sacrifice is the essence of religion." He bespoke untold benefit through a broader comprehension of this principle by the public and continued preaching of it by the clergy.

"It is only through these avenues," he declared, "by a constant renewal and extension of our faith, that we can expect to enlarge and improve the moral and spiritual life of the nation. Without that faith, all that we have of an enlightened civilization cannot endure."

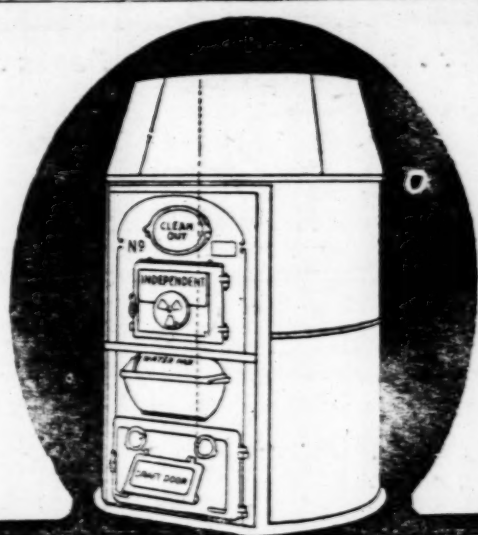

Asserting that, if the people are the government, "it will be what they are" and "will be able to get out of the people only such virtue as religion has placed there," the President went on:

"If society resists wrong doing by punishment, as it must do un-

HEARING ON WHETHER VIADUCT
SHOULD BE 20 OR 22 FEET HIGH

State Public Service Body Takes Up
Projected Bridge Over Tracks

The State Public Service Commission, sitting at City Hall today, considered the question of whether the projected Kingshighway viaduct
over the Terminal Railroad tracks
in Penrose Park should have a 22-foot or a 20-foot clearance. A decision will be made later.

Under an agreement between the city and the Terminal, a 20-foot viaduct would be built. However,
a recent State act requires that all viaducts clear 22 feet, unless the Commission should deem it impracticable and the Commission is nationally permitted to permit a 20-foot clearance.

At the hearing today, representatives of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen argued for the 22-foot clearance for the safety of workers. City and railroad represents pointed out that the additional two feet would cost $260,000,
and argued that 20 feet was a safe
clearance.

The Commission also heard complaints of employees of the Curtis Manufacturing Co., who live in Webster Groves and Kirkwood.
Riding the Kirkwood-Perguson car line, they are required to pay a second fare at Eastern avenue to ride the few blocks to the plant at 1500 Klenken avenue. They seek a ruling permitting them to ride to Suburban Garden on one fare.

Two Men Slain With Bayonet.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 21.—
Two men early last night were stabbed to death with an army bayonet and a third is in the General Hospital suffering from severe wounds as the result of a quarrel
in a room where the three men lived. According to police, Charles Cascio, 45 years old, was slain by a man known only as Jim, who in turn was killed by Carlo Farris, 25,
when Jim assaulted him.

Farris, police say, declared the trouble started Monday night over who should wash the dishes.

PLEA FOR MORE
RELIGION IN NATION

less it is willing to approve it through failure to resist it, there is no middle ground. It may protect itself as it is justified in doing by restraining a criminal,
but that in and of itself does not reform him. It is only a treatment of a symptom. It does not eradicate the disease. It does not make the community virtuous.

Public Obedience to Law.
"No amount of restraint, no amount of law can do that. If our political and social standards
are the result of an enlightened conscience, then their perfection depends upon securing a more enlightened conscience."

"If we are to preserve what we already have and provide for further reformation, as the clergymen tell us, we must become partakers of the spirit of the Great Master. This way is outside the Government. It is the realm of religion."

The Government can and is aiding in solution of some of the present day problems, Mr. Coolidge said, believing that the law undoubtedly acts to deter wrongdoing and to repress crime.

"But this," he held, "reaches its highest application only when there is a very healthy and determined public sentiment in favor of the observance of the law.
The utmost ingenuity on the part of the police powers will be substantially all wasted, in an effort to enforce the law, if there does not exist a strong and vigorous determination on the part of the people to observe the law. Such a determination cannot be produced by the Government. My own opinion is that it is furnished by religion."

The executive explained that he was not referring to religion in
"any denominational or any narrow and technical sense," saying:

No Religious Decline.
"While I regard the clergy as the greatest power for religious teaching that we have, I do not refer to them alone. I am conscious that the example of devoted men and women, the result of the inevitable social relations, and above all the influence of piety
in the home, are all forces of enormous significance. While certain formalities of the past may have lost the force they once had,
I do not see any diminution in the steadfastness of the religious convictions of the people."

BAKER TAKES CONTROL OF STAFF FROM RAUPP

Adj.-Gen. Rumbold Is Given Authority Over National Guard Officers.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 21.—A rank movement has been executed by Governor Baker in the strategic campaign being waged within the Missouri National Guard for administrative control of the state's military forces with an order taking away from Brig. Gen. W. A. Raupp of Pierce City, commanding general of the state troops, the authority Raupp has exercised over the state staff corps of the National Guard. The order, effective this week, places authority over the staff corps in the hands of Adjutant General Frank Rumbold, appointee of Baker and directs the staff officers to perform no military duties except upon order of the adjutant general. Raupp originally appointed the members of the state staff corps who perform various administrative duties, and as commanding general has directed their duties. The Governor's order shatters him of this authority.

Resignations Are Expected. The order made no change in the personnel of the staff corps but it is understood some resignations may result from the transfer of authority.

Principal members of the staff corps are Lieut. Col. Thomas S. Waddell, of Pierce City, inspector general; Lieut. Col. Bennett C. Clark, of St. Louis, Judge Advocate General; Lieut. Col. A. V. Adams, of Jefferson City, quartermaster; Lieut. Col. Claude C. Earl, of Nevada, Ordnance officer; Lieut. Col. William L. Gist, of Kansas City, Medical department.

Maneuvers for control of administration of the guard troops have been in progress for some time, between the Governor and Rumbold on one side and Raupp and a majority of the State Military Council on the other. The council comprises Raupp, Rumbold and the five Colonels commanding National Guard regiments. The State law gives the council control over expenditures, training, equipment and organization of the National Guard. A majority of its members contend the council should be the adviser of the Governor in military affairs. However, Baker has told the council he regards Rumbold as his "Secretary of War" and would confer with him on military affairs.

Dispute Over Expense Accounts.

As has been told Baker last week made his first move to curb the powers of the military council of which Raupp is president and executive officer over National Guard expenditures. He directed that no member of the National Guard was to incur expense for travel on official business, chargeable to State funds, without first obtaining from the Governor an order authorizing the travel. The council previously had full control over expense accounts, along with other expenditures, and its members contend it still has that power by law.

While issued as an economy measure the order was directed at the expense accounts of Raupp, it is understood. Raupp's expense accounts for travel over the State while approved by the military council have not been viewed with approval by the administration.

DOG THAT BIT 5 CHILDREN FOUND TO HAVE HAD RABIES

St. Charles Physician Makes Rush Order for Serum for Pasteur Treatment.

The five small children of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bower, Fifth and Lewis streets, St. Charles, were bitten by their pet dog a few days ago, which on a later examination by a specialist at Kansas City, under whose orders it was killed, was pronounced to be suffering from rabies in the extreme form. Dr. B. P. Wentker, a local physician, sent in a rush order for the serum necessary to give the children the Pasteur treatment.

The dog bit the first child Tuesday and three others Wednesday. The dog was ordered killed at the request of the family physician Friday, and its head sent to Kansas City by Dr. Von Grempe.

EMPLOYEES CONDUCT SERVICES FOR BEGGS

Street Cars in Milwaukee Halt
as Body Is Put on Train and Sent East.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 21.—
Funeral ceremonies here for John
I. Beggs were conducted yesterday
by employees of the Milwaukee Street Railway & Lighting Co., of which he was president.

At 10 a. m., the body was carried into the auditorium of the Electric Building by eight veteran employees and lay in state for four hours. Thousands of persons passed the bier. At 2:30 there was a procession into the auditorium of members of the Employees' Mutual Benefit Association—trainmen in uniform, members of the Women's Auxiliary of the order, its board of directors and officers.
The president of the association conducted a ritual, tributes were given by two employees and there was a brief prayer by a minister.

The body then was carried to the station. As it was placed aboard a train for Harrisburg, Pa., street cars in the city halted and trainmen stood in silent tribute.

A telegraphic eulogy from Frank L. Dame, president of North American Co., referred to Beggs in this manner: "His name is indelibly stamped upon the annals of public utility business as one of its greatest progressive leaders."

Among those who came from St.
Louis for the funeral were Edwin
B. Meissner, Morton Jourdan, Isaac
H. Orr, John F. Shepley, Richard
S. Hawes and Sears Lehman.

The body was accompanied to Harrisburg by Mrs. Richard Mc-Culloch of St. Louis, an only daughter, her husband and three children.

Services in Harrisburg will be tomorrow from Grace Methodist Church, where Beggs saw his first incandescent electric light which inspired him to promote and build in Harrisburg one of the first lighting plants in the country.

DOUST OF W. A. GIRALDIN
AS ADMINISTRATOR REFUSED
Evidence Insufficient to Justify Granting Sister's Petition, Court Holds.

The petition of Mrs. Nellie B. Mc-Ginnis, 5732 Julian avenue, asking that her brother, former Police Commissioner William A. Giraldin, a realty operator, be removed as administrator of the estate of their brother, the late Charles E. Giraldin, was denied yesterday by Probate Judge Holtkamp. He held that no evidence had been shown to justify granting the petition.

Mrs. McGinnis complained that W. A. Giraldin had taken credit in a semiannual settlement made in the estate for payment to her of $40,267.04 although she did not personally receive the sum so credited. Giraldin explained the money was placed in trust and invested for the protection of his sister and she receives the income, amounting to $250 a month. He said he is trustee, and does not charge any commission for his services.

Mrs. McGinnis admitted she signed the trust agreement but declared on the stand she did not understand what the document provided for when her brother read it to her. She said she desired to handle her property without a trust restriction.

U. S. APPEALS COURT UPHOLDS TAX ON MANUFACTURERS
St. Louis License Levy Valid, Judge Van Valkenburgh Says, Affirming Ruling by Faris.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals, in an opinion written by Judge Van Valkenburgh, yesterday affirmed District Judge Faris
in upholding the validity of the license tax on manufacturers of St.
Louis, imposed by municipal ordinance.

An attack on the tax was made by the American Manufacturing Co., manufacturers of cotton bagging, which sought refund of $3844
paid in 1920, contending that most of their business was interstate and that the city had no right to tax such business. Judge Faris and the higher court decided against the company, holding the tax to be an excise tax and not a tax on interstate business. The Missouri Supreme Court held similarly.

ROBBER OF KROGER STORES GETS FIVE-YEAR SENTENCE
Earl Duffy, 22, Sentenced by Circuit Judge Frey on Plea of Guilty.

Earl Duffy, 22 years old, of 1417
Francis street, pleaded guilty yesterday to two charges of robbery
before Circuit Judge Frey and was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary on each charge. The sentences, however, will run concu-rently.

Duffy pleaded guilty of holding up two Kroger stores last spring, obtaining small amounts of cash in each robbery. He was arrested last July, and admitted committing these and several other robberies.

EARLY REORGANIZATION OF U. R. FORECAST

Committee in New York Thinks Receivership Here Will End About April 1.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Belief that the reorganization plan of the United Railways will become operative within six months was expressed by members of the Reorganization committee at a meeting here yesterday in the office of Newman, Saunders & Co.

If the optimism of the committee becomes a reality the receivership, under which the street railways system has been operated for more than six years, will be terminated about April 1.

The principal objective now before the committee relate to obtaining a new franchise from the city and condensing holders of $20,000,000 of general 4 per cent bonds maturing in 1938. The protective committee of this latter issue has demanded that underlying bonds amounting to $8,300,000, of which $4,200,000 have been replaced by receiver's certificates, be paid off so the general 4 mortgage will become the first lien. A settlement of this question may be expected at an early date although the committee did not reveal its plans. It was stated that, exclusive of the general 4 committee, 55 per cent of all security holders had agreed to the plan.

The service-at-cost plan contemplated by reorganization would include a 50-year or indeterminate franchise with city representation on the Board of Control of the new company and a street railway commissioner to assist in its direction. Mayor Miller has indicated that negotiations would be open and that a franchise, if granted, would be authorized by the people in a city-wide vote.

It is proposed to establish a "transportation" fund, the size of which will determine the rate of fare charged. When the fund reaches a certain maximum figure the fare will be lowered until the fund minimum is attained and a fare increase would then be ordered.

The financial plan itself is built upon the theory that the Public Service Commission will authorize the company to earn 7 per cent upon a valuation of $12,000,000. The company hopes by reducing its bonded indebtedness from $54,000,000 as at present to $42,800,000. This leaves a difference of about $11,000,000 between the bonded indebtedness and the valuation upon which it could earn for operating expenses and stock dividends.

13 SPADES IN BRIDGE HAND

New England Woman Holds Entire Suit in Auction Game.

SALEM, Mass., Oct. 21.—The perfect bridge hand has appeared here. An affidavit signed by Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Shepard has been made public to the effect that in a recent game of auction bridge "a Mrs. King" who played with them, held as trumps the entire spade suit. Mrs. King's name was withheld, the Shepards explained, because she wished to avoid publicity.

This duplicates the luck of John Donahue of Chicago, who last summer in an auction game held all 13 diamonds.

ELEVATOR OPERATOR KILLED

Frank Schiele, Negro, Tried to Get Into Moving Cage.

Frank Schiele, 15 years old, of 2665 Scott avenue, a negro elevator operator in a building at 415 North Eighth street, was crushed to death between the elevator cage and the wall between the first and second floors there at 6 p. m. yesterday. Firemen were called to release the body.

Police reported Schiele had been standing in the lobby of the building talking to friends when the elevator started upwards. He attempted to jump into the cage to stop it and was caught. His chest was crushed.

DR. W. B. CALDWELL AT THE AGE OF 83

"Purge" and "Physic" Cruel to Women, Children, Old Folks

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated children, women, and particularly old folks, had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils. While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all headaches, biliousness, indigestion and stomach misery, he did not believe that a sickening "purge" or "physic" every day or two was necessary.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which regulates the bowels. A single dose will establish natural, healthy bowel movement for weeks at a time even for those chronically constipated. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin causes a gentle, easy bowel movement, but, best of all, it is months before another dose is necessary. Besides, it is absolutely harmless, and so pleasant that even the cross, feverish, bilious, sick child gladly takes it.

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at the store that sells medicine and for yourself.

TO QUIT LIQUOR SALES
New York Druggists Say Undesirable Are Hurting Trade.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The New York pharmaceutical conference,
meeting the druggists of the city,

will petition Congress at its next session to relieve them from the responsibility of distributing intoxicating liquors intended for medicinal purposes.

Clyde L. Eddy, chairman of the public relations committee, said an undesirable element has been attracted to the drug business by the possibilities of the sale of liquor

and that these men are ruining
the legitimate drug business. Druggists, he said, seek to have the sale of medicinal liquor placed in the hands of some other trade or held by the government.

CENACOLO DISPUTE IN PALESTINE SETTLED

Churches Agree Franciscan Monks Shall Control Site of the "Last Supper."

By Radio to the Post-Dispatch and Chicago Daily News.

ROME, Oct. 20.—What is known as the "cenacolo dispute," involving rival claims of various governments to the place where Jesus celebrated the Last Supper, has been finally settled, according to definite information received here.

This decision when officially announced will solve one of the most important religious questions of
many years, ending a dispute going back ten centuries, at present involving Italy, England, Turkey and Spain.

The ecclesiastical settlement now made gives jurisdiction to Italian Franciscans, but the political adjustment remaining probably will be referred to the League of Nations.

The story of Cenacolo has been steeped both in innumerable legend and divine significance since the time of Christ. Cenacolo itself being the site of the building in Palestine where Jesus said farewell to His apostles at the last supper and the Holy Spirit descended on Day of Pentecost.

Claimed by Turks.
The first great complication arose
from the fact that Turks as well as Christians venerated the spot, since the Turks asserted that the same site concealed the tomb of David who, like Abraham is the Muham-medan as well as the Hebrew prophet. A Christian basilica built in the tenth century on the site,
was one of the main points of struggle during the crusades, being alternately won by Moslems and Christians, as it was a holy spot with both.

In 1333 King Robert of Naples
succeeded in legally buying Cenacolo
of the Turks on an agreement to venerate it perpetually. Robert entrusted the task to Franciscan Friars who restored two chapels and guarded the sanctuary for a century and a half. In 1452 the Turks invaded the district again
in the name of the prophet David, whereupon another series of combats occurred for 100 years.

From 1551 until 1917 when Lord
Allenby captured Jerusalem Cenacolo remained in the hands of the Turks.

Dispute Renewed.
Since the war the dispute has broken afresh each year, especially near Easter, with unfortunate bloodshed and fighting occurring among scuffling pilgrims, mostly Mohammedans.

Four countries now are seeking to straighten out the matter, the Turks because it is the tomb of David, England because of peacemaking hegemony, Spain because the original Franciscans were Spanish, and Italy because the King of Italy is a descendant of the early King of Naples.

The ecclesiastical claims now have been settled by granting government of the site in perpetuity to Italian Franciscans who must always be accompanied by one Spanish friar and must always permit Turkish and Jewish pilgrims
free access.

Political claims have not yet been settled, but England and Italy probably will agree to submit the matter to the league.

PARDON SOUGHT FOR WOMAN CONVICTED OF SYNDICALISM

American Civil Liberties Union and W. C. T. U. to Send Appeals to California Governor.

By the Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21.—What Southern California headquarters of the American Civil Liberties Union promised would be a large and impressive delegation is expected to wait upon Gov. Richardson here today to urge clemency
for Charlotte Anita Whitney, social worker and pioneer suffragist, convicted of criminal syndicalism and sentenced to one to 14 years in San Quentin penitentiary.

A campaign of protest against the imprisonment of Miss Whitney was started here last night by Upton Sinclair, author and Socialist worker, who appealed to the Governor in a telegram, declaring that
"If you permit a woman of refinement, culture and noble character
like Miss Whitney to be confined in San Quentin prison for the crime of holding political opinions,
you will not upon this State a blot which will not come off during your life time."

Later Sinclair made public a telegram from Roger Baldwin, director of the American Civil Liberties Union, New York, which said
a recent mandate of the Supreme Court, refusing to accept jurisdiction in the Whitney case, would not be effective for a few weeks
and that an extension is possible
even after that.

At Oakland last night, delegates to the State convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union adopted a resolution calling on Gov. Richardson to pardon Miss Whitney. The resolution said in part:

"It would be an injustice to the womanhood of California to send a woman to San Quentin on this charge."

Why Quaker Oats "stands by" you through the morning ending premature fatigue

DO you feel tired, nervous, hungry, hours before lunch?

Don't jump to the conclusion of poor health.
Almost 90% of the time you'll find it's premature fatigue, brought on largely by an ill-balanced breakfast ration. Thousands have
"draggy" mornings for that reason.

To feel right, you must have well-balanced,
complete food. You can't deceive nature into accepting breakfasts that lack even a single element toward correct food balance.

That is why Quaker Oats is so widely urged today. It is almost a perfectly balanced dish.

Contains 16% protein, food's great tissue
builder; 58% carbohydrate, the great energy element; is rich in minerals, and in vitamins.
Supplies the "bulk" your diet needs to make laxatives seldom necessary.

Few foods have its remarkable "balance."
That is why it stands by you through the morning.

CLAYTON ROAD TO BE REPAIRED IN SIX WEEKS

City Reaches Compromise Agreement With County on Cost of Resurfacing Thoroughfare.

FREE TO SPEND $15,000 FOR WORK

City Is in Addition to Payment of $25,000 Previously Agreed to by Comptroller Nolte.

The city and county yesterday agreed their dispute that has kept Clayton road closed to travel several months between Pennhance avenue and North and South roads, and it seems likely now the road will be resurfaced and reopened to safe travel within six weeks.

The city will pay the county $15,000 and the county will repair the road, which was torn up more than a month ago by the city in laying out its new water works on the Missouri River into the city. The sum is a compromise, city previously having offered $20,000 and the county having demanded $15,000. "Possibly if the actual resurfacing found to have cost more," yesterday's agreement was made at a conference yesterday afternoon at the city hall, attended by Mayor Miller, Alderman Neun of the Board of Aldermen, Comptroller Nolte and Director of Public Utilities Wall, for city and Judges Eyles and Bannister, comprising the majority of the County Court, and Highway Engineer Jablonsky, for the county.

Lawyers Attended Session. Both sides were guided by legal counsel and it appeared, for a time, as if the dispute would emerge the real issue of the road should be opened up as soon as possible, at least before winter intervened.

Mayor Miller and President Neun are of the opinion that the agreement by which the city paid the county $15,000 in addition to the $25,000 to be paid to the city to repair the road, was a legal and that the city could not be held to the county's demand for $20,000. He proposed that the county should be paid the $15,000 in good faith and did not seek to seek its return.

Director of Public Utilities Wall said he would not make any statement of the road, fearing that it would not be done by the city to the satisfaction of the county and if the city did not do the job that the county had larger than any sum allowed.

Action by Board. The Board of Estimate, after consultation, then agreed to forget the $20,000 and proposed that the city reconstruct the road to its satisfaction, the city paying $15,000 toward the cost. This was agreed by the county judges.

City Engineer Jablonsky stated at the meeting that work on the road would be started within a week, that a macadam surface would be laid, requiring about six weeks. When it appeared last week that city and county had reached a deadlock and that Clayton road would remain impassable through the winter, the Post-Dispatch editorialized the dispute as "unfortunate." It required of both sides displayed substance for arbitration but a willingness for conference, which was arranged through Judge Neun and Comptroller Nolte.

W. H. H. Wilson, of course, is giving all attention to the war, there is growing discussion of peace, and especially of arrangements to follow. Nobody sees peace, chance for it. But this constantly disarms the possibility of making the peace. "The City Can Wait"

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
Your editorial of Oct. 17, on Annexation or Consolidation of the city and county was the best that has ever been written on the subject.

It is unfortunate that more people do not read editorials. If similar articles were run among the news items, it would soon revolutionize public sentiment. I have been at this matter for 20 years and know the situation perfectly.

F. E. NIELSEN

War Department Supply Station

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
Now that a St. Louisian is Secretary of War, the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce and our representatives in Congress might find the time opportune to renew the establishment of the St. Louis depot as a general supply point for the many articles required by the War Department.

For about 15 years, or perhaps more, prior to the present arrangement, there was located at St. Louis a depot of supply to which requisitions from military stations in Missouri, Kansas, Texas and Oklahoma and other states were submitted directly to St. Louis for stock, shoes, clothing, harness and horse equipment, paints and oils, plumbing and blacksmith supplies, and all items in the same category. In recent years, however, through pressure brought to bear by Chicago interests, the St. Louis depot has been gradually disposing of its stock of general supplies, and no replenishment is made at this point. The Chicago depot is under the present scheme designated as the point of supply for the vast territory formerly served by the St. Louis depot, except for medical and hospital supplies, which are now and have been for several years supplied by the St. Louis depot.

The central location of St. Louis makes it the logical point of supply for the articles now purchased by and shipped out of Chicago, required in the territory formerly supplied from St. Louis. The freight rates from St. Louis to Southern points are greatly in favor of St. Louis; the shipping time is much less, and the market here is ample adequate to serve the army economy and the expenditure of St. Louis has simply allowed Chicago to purloin this business and the St. Louis merchants should not overlook this opportunity of getting it back.

During the war a large storage plant was erected at "The Arsenal," which should prove sufficient for the operation of a general supply establishment.

Keystone of American Liberty

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
The right of local self-government under the Constitution, for which your paper stands, is the keystone of American liberty.

REAFER

Defense of Old Maids

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
MRS. EDERTSCHAUSER, in a recent letter, has brought one old maid out of her "den" by her remarks. First, let me say, I am not so old, do not wear false teeth, neither do I wear roller stockings, bobbed hair or walk flapper gait. I can compare my housekeeping with the best, could make a perfect home, can make a pumpkin pie which melts in your mouth. Modesty forbids naming more qualifications, but I am an old maid, or that's what they call me—and why? Just because I am not married, just because I am not one of the butterflies this Mr. Man tells us of (his name is too long to repeat). I stay home and tend to my business, whereas Miss Gadschott gets out and meets her partner. My dresses do not catch the masculine eye, therefore I do not seek. So please don't, for pity's sake, blame bachelorhood to butterflies, fashion plates or gadabouts for they are the ones who are sought after. That's why they are in the majority. Do we hear Mr. Husband commenting on the plain-dressed lady passerby when out walking or riding with his wife? No, it's the chic, lady-like exclaims in speech. So there you are, Mr. Bachelor, you've made them what they are, and so don't turn them down.

MARY JANE

More Busses Needed

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
CAN we not have motor busses or other conveyance over Goodfellow boulevard soon? Northern part to connect more other streets running downtown. Last evening Post-Dispatch item read, "Consider Passengers' Comfort" getting sent. How about poor, tired, young and old people who work hard all day and tramp seven miles blocks to reach Westlawn, Kodiamont or Cave Hill, rain, sleet or snow? These streets from Easton to Natural Bridge would bring in lots of extra shakels. Run a couple of busses over to try it out. Prove it to yourselves. Why so much just to and controversy over it last 14 years and nothing done to relieve it? Service is what we ask, that's all.

TAN PAYNE

COOLIDGE SPEAKS TRUTH.

Discussing lawlessness, which he said was too prevalent, President Coolidge spoke truth when he told the annual council of Congregational churches in Washington that the people cannot be redeemed by law. The power of law is limited. It can only deter by punishing. It cannot reform or elevate the moral standards of the people, nor can it be enforced without the support of public sentiment.

Restraint, a criminal, the President said, does not reform him. It is only the treatment of a symptom. It does not eradicate the disease. It does not make the community virtuous. No amount of law can do that. "The utmost integrity on the part of the police power will be substantially wasted in an effort to enforce the law if there does not exist a strong and vigorous determination on the part of the people to observe the law. Such a determination cannot be produced by the Government."

The only remedy for lawlessness and immorality, in the President's opinion, is religion in its broadest sense, meaning the enlightened conscience and moral sanction.

The converse is true. Since the Government cannot produce a determination to observe the law, the Government cannot enforce a law that is not sustained by public opinion. By trying to enforce laws which are not supported by public sentiment the Government merely undermines respect for law. It creates lawlessness. In short, good citizenship, good morals and orderly society depend upon the enlightened conscience of the individuals composing the nation or the community.

ARBITRATION WINS.

Arbitration, which the Post-Dispatch suggested as the right way to settle the dispute between the city and county over the reconstruction of Clayton road, has won. After a conference between city and county officials the city agreed to pay $15,000 for reconstruction of the road, and the county has accepted the offer.

The public will not much longer be inconvenienced by the impassable condition of the Clayton road caused by obstinacy on each side of the dispute. Again the power of reason has been demonstrated.

COLLEGES OF THE AIR.

The illustrious log with Mark Hopkins sitting on one end and a student on the other, which, according to James A. Garfield, constituted a college, is overgrown with bearded moss and lost in the forest wilderness of yesterday. The college has taken to the air—or shall we say the ether?

Put on the headset or give ear to the loud speaker. Station WSUL, University of Iowa, announcing. The College of the Air now open. Faculty of nine professors. Full college credit for half a year to all who take the lecture courses and abide by certain other requirements. Live at home and earn your college degree.

The Iowa institution is merely the pioneer. Surely other universities will follow this lead. Probably "colleges of the air" will be established outside the classic precincts of scholastic life. Possibly some of these will be better, and some worse, than the average university staff can organize and operate. But you can have your pick right off the ether.

And here comes now Gen. J. G. Harbord, head of a great radio corporation, announcing: "With 31,000,000 people living on farms, the agricultural colleges enroll but 100,000 students. Radio should bring the advantages of scientific schooling to millions of farmers. It will enable the student, whose college course has been interrupted, to continue it, often with the same instructors."

Gen. Harbord adds that "of all that may be said of radio, the best is that it will tend to keep young people on the farm. There is the true independence, there is the real home of the American sovereign. Entertainment and culture and the throbbing life of the metropolis, carried to the farm by radio, helping to make rural life more attractive and desirable, will sustain that class which is the backbone of our national existence."

Surely radio, heard yesterday, has a destiny of usefulness almost infinite. Perhaps it is to usher in the golden age.

FISCAL CONTROL OF CHINA.

A so-called "customs conference," attended by representatives of treaty powers, will be held in Peking Oct. 26, to consider the demand of the Chinese for tariff and fiscal autonomy. What concessions if any will be made, one can only guess, but it seems quite certain that none will come very willingly.

For many years the Western Powers have controlled and directed the external fiscal policy of China, and to a very large extent in the interest of their own commerce, though ostensibly as a guarantee of the payment of loans and international claims. Recent dispatches from Shanghai state that some of the great manufacturing interests of the United States, Great Britain and Japan will have lobbies at the customs conference and that all large foreign commercial groups in China will have their agents present to see that their own particular tariff advantages are not disturbed.

The influence of these groups will determine how far the treaty powers will go toward restoring to China that full control of her fiscal affairs which is a vital element of independence.

In view of the prevailing belief that Governments exist today primarily for the purpose of "putting money into the pockets of particular favored classes of citizens we have no very great hope of anything but quibble.

WHEN LINCOLN READ BILL NYE!

We find that sprightly little weekly, The Pathfinder, informing folks that Abraham Lincoln, when President, relieved his worries by reading the highly humorous writings of Bill Nye. And the paper is published at Washington, where Lincoln lived! Lincoln was assassinated early in 1865. Nye was born in 1850, so, if The Pathfinder is accurate, Bill at 15 or earlier was a boy author whose work attracted and amused the President of the United States.

Of course, our Washington contemporary had in mind Artemus Ward, whose funny stuff Lincoln read to his Cabinet when he called that body together to notify the members that he had determined to promulgate the Emancipation Proclamation. But it was a pity, all the same, that President Lincoln missed the privilege of reading Bill Nye when Bill was making the New York World the most popular journal on earth for its funny articles written by Bill. Lincoln probably could have put down the rebellion earlier had he made a habit of reading to his Cabinet Bill Nye's "Comic History of the United States." Cabinet Ministers and other important persons are prone to take themselves, their jobs and the universe at large rather too seriously. Lincoln realized that fact; and it was one of the things that made him sufficiently human to handle his high position masterfully.

MELLON'S IMAGINARY WOLF.

Mr. Mellon's recommendations as to revenue legislation will not carry the weight now that they once did. He has blundered away a good deal of his prestige. His political opponents are taking advantage of that fact.

It has been pointed out by Representatives Bailey of Illinois, for example, that the Secretary of the Treasury opposed the soldiers' bonus because of the prospective deficit, but instead of a deficit Uncle Sam's books when balanced showed a surplus.

Again when the present revenue act was passed unhappy consequences were predicted. The country was told that unless the schedules of the Mellon plan were adopted, particularly the proposed reduction of large incomes, sources of revenue would be dried up and the Government's income impaired. The Mellon plan was rejected, but the unhappy result has not transpired. Again, instead of a deficit, we have a surplus which warrants another reduction in taxes.

Under the circumstances the Ways and Means Committee need not hesitate to trust its own judgment when it conflicts with Mr. Mellon's. Certainly Congress as a whole cannot be censured if it disregards the Treasury head's warnings.

Mellon has twice shouted wolf when there wasn't any wolf.

TROLLEY CARS AND BUSES.

The controversy between champions of bus transportation and trolley car transportation should be productive of something more fruitful than attempts of champions of one form to injure the other. The keener the competition the more necessary for a reasonable solution of the problem.

Everyone can see that all practicable modes of transportation are needed in order to carry the ever-increasing populations of the cities. Both the trolley and the bus can do their share in moving the still large part of the population not owning automobiles. To condemn the trolley because street cars cannot load or unload at the curb is futile. And to claim that travel by bus is always more pleasant than by street car is equally futile. Both modes of travel have their advantages and drawbacks. When the street cars are crowded, comfort is out of the question. And in very bad weather, upper decks of busses are useless. Trolley cars are more noisy than busses, but the hard rubber tires of the busses make reading aboard these vehicles uncomfortable.

As A. J. Brosseau, president of the International Motor Car, manufacturers of Mack busses, said recently, busses are here to stay, but "for mass transportation in large cities the trolley is the logical transit factor." Both, however, will have to come under the same public control. And operators of both will have to do all that is possible to improve vehicles and methods, giving service at cost, in the public interest. To this end, constructive suggestions and legislation are essential.

BUSY QUEEN MARIE.

Queen Marie of Rumania must be the busiest Queen in Europe, what with arranging clever matches for her children and writing a series of syndicated articles for American newspapers. But we never realized just how busy a busy Queen can be until we read her column in the estimable Globe-Democrat called "Queen's Counsel." She had this to say:

Instead, the girl came to me—and I may say here in parenthesis that everybody comes to me sooner or later, from the old woman who wants advice on how to keep her hens healthy to the society girl who cannot manage her love. That is the way in a smaller country such as Rumania; the King and Queen are necessarily closer to their subjects than they could possibly be in a larger, more matured nation.

What is the use of living in a democracy where one has to consult a Queen through the columns of a newspaper? Those lucky Rumanians have all the best of it. Whenever they need a recipe for cake, batter, or want to know how to cook cabbage, or are simply lovelorn they walk right in to the palace and tell their troubles to Queen Marie.

TROLL A STAVE TO LARRY.

Somebody should troll a stave to Lawrence G. Nicolai, the most gallant urn yet fashioned by the potter. The Galahads, the Arthurs, the Autsassins who preened their wings when knighthood was in flower were drab wrecks compared with Bonnie Larry.

There's a lover. He met and wooed and married Sheila, and they were happy ever afterward through that brief wistful April of wonder. They parted, Larry desolate, Sheila carefree and merry, as is the way of the man and the woman—parted never to meet again. But they did meet again—met again in mellowing summer's rose-strewn road and Larry married her again. Could devotion do more? It sure could.

Again their ways divided. Again the court's decree struck the fetters, and once more Larry trudged the bleak landscape of loneliness and once more Sheila danced away the years.

Again romance sought Sheila and again it found her. But the Prince Charming this time was not Larry. He was a nephew of Asa Candler, the Caliph of Coca Cola, and a "delightful and refreshing" figure himself in the arena of amour. Did Larry have any part in this third rapturous essay? Well, rather. He was the god of the machine, the pilot of the ardent flight, the chauffeur who drove his twice-wedded wife into the bliss of a favored suitor's arms.

So to him a stave should be trolled, we submit, and by a top-notch trollor, too.

SOCRATES AND HIS PUPILS.

Glaucous. You have, of course, O Socrates, seen the statement that we must dress well to succeed. As your pupils, we would like to ask you if you attribute your success to dress?

Socrates. No, I have never had anything better than the old debating gown I am now wearing.

Thrasymachus. Yet you have attended brilliant debates and have mingled with the very best-dressed people.

Socrates. That is quite so, but I never knew a well-dressed man to participate in the debates. I have seen some of them present, but only in the way we see well-dressed people at Washington. The best-dressed diplomatic household in Washington is that of Guatemala, which is of almost no political or any other kind of importance. On the other hand, the worst-dressed diplomatic household down there is that of Great Britain, which is of the most importance politically and in every other way. If you see a man on the street in Washington with thick-soled shoes, thin hair and dandruff all over the back of his coat, it is ten to one that he is the British Ambassador.

Polemarchus. Have our notable statesmen and our Presidents been good dressers?

Socrates. Well, Grover Cleveland dressed a good deal like the village butcher at Perth Amboy, and you know very well that in the seven years Mr. Roosevelt was in the White House he never had his clothes pressed. Mr. Borah, who is regarded as our leading statesman at Washington, wears his tie with the seam out. Mr. Coolidge is a fastidious dresser. Mr. Harding remains unchanged as the worst President but the best-dressed man we ever had in the White House. Mr. Wilson wore his and schoolmaster's coat, and if he thought he didn't look plain he was miserable. The best-dressed man we have had in the Senate since James Hamilton Lewis, known as the Tailor's Game, is Senator Willis of Ohio. Take his clothes away from him and his seat is vacant.

Glaucous. Then you don't think that dress has anything to do with success?

Socrates. Yes, I do. I think it is fatal to success. If that were not so, why is it that dandies and fashion plates we see every day are of no importance whatever, whereas the bad dressers and the men with their trousers bunched at the knees own and run the town?

Thrasymachus. I don't think there is anything else to say on our side.

Socrates. I am sorry. I like to have you young men try to beat me. That is what will make you able to do me credit when I am gone. However, if clothes make the man, how was it that Diogenes made such a reputation? He went around in a barrel. What a dude Christ must have been, and who doubts that Aristotle went around with one of his wife's old window curtains thrown about him? Then there was Abraham Lincoln. He was a sartorial scoundrel.

HOW COOL IS COOLIDGE?

We have been asked to keep cool with Coolidge without knowing how cool he is. Jack Blanton tells us in the Monroe County (Mo.) Appeal:

The great American sense of humor is proving a valuable asset to President Coolidge. Instead of feeling affronted at his slights and snubs, the public sees that the joke is on it and has a big laugh at its own expense. The President's conduct at Moberly Thursday night of last week was a typical instance. Several hundred people, most of them local Republicans, gathered at the station to greet him. Mr. Coolidge walked out on the back platform, cast a critical look around and inquired: "What town is this?" When told it was Moberly, Mo., he stalked back into the car giving no indication of having seen anybody at all.

An age which gave us democracy and the Magna Charta, the free city and free trade, the cathedral and the university, monasticism and scholasticism, a sturdy yeomanry and the dependable guild, the rule of God and civility, the minstrel and the troubadour, the mellowing and the community drama, festival and carnival, and an awakened appreciation of good wine and brew must not have been so stringent. When we consider that every man on its platform and dressed a barrel of babies before the train pulled out. OUR TARIFF SNOOPERS ABROAD

From the New York World.

A PIOTEST from the Paris Chamber of Commerce is the latest protest against the acts of our Tariff Commissioners and Treasury attaches. Wherever they go to carry out the Furber-McCumber provisions for ascertaining the foreign value of goods shipped to America—in Scandinavia, Switzerland, in Great Britain—they recognize that these activities do far more harm than good. What would happen if Japanese, British and German agents had demanded inspection of essential business books and papers? American industry would not submit for a minute. Yet the Government tries to thrust such demands down the throats of foreign manufacturers and exporters by insisting that its agents have diplomatic status, and by attempting to block shipments if permission is refused. Its course opens the door to abuses. There is nothing whatever to prevent an American agent learning the trade secrets of a European house, reaping the fruits of the use of wiretapping. But even if such abuses were possible these ineffectual tactics would in the highest degree offensive.

STALAGMITE LIKE A WOMAN
Peasantry of Cebu Think It Miraculously Resembles Virgin.

By Radio to the Post-Dispatch and the Chicago Daily News. Copyright, 1925.
MANILA, Oct. 21.—The discovery of a huge stalagmite in the form of a woman with flowing robes, which the pious imagination of the peasantry easily converts into the image of the Virgin Mary, has caused a great religious pilgrimage in the village of Samang, town of Toledo, Province of Cebu, where the inhabitants number more than a million.

Many believe the spectacle may be an evil apparition and consequent discussions are giving rise to much excitement, inducing thousands to visit the cave where it was discovered.

The stalagmite is near the entrance to the cave and during certain hours of the day a luminous light glows over it, giving it the appearance of gleaming whiteness and lending a thoroughly spectral aspect.

UNDERGROUND ART THEATER TO BE OPENED IN CHICAGO

Two 40-Foot Wagon Stages Provided for Largest Playhouse in the City.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Classic standards of drama and art will be introduced here tomorrow night by the opening of a new kind of theater. The playhouse is the Goodwin Memorial Theater, home of the dramatic art department of the Chicago Art Institute. It is unique in being largely underground, due to city building restrictions on structures in Grant Park, the heart of the Lake Michigan frontage.

There are no spotlights, a concealed row of lights above and in the front of the proscenium arch creating on the stage an effect of natural outdoor daylight.

The auditorium itself is more roomy than the usual "little theater." There are no boxes and the seats are placed on the European plan, rows widely spaced, with no under the discretion of local Bishops. The period of this jubilee, largest in Chicago, not only the proscenium width in view of the audience, but back-stage, which has space on either side for a 40-foot wagon stage. On these big wooden platforms the next scene is set and when the curtain goes down, the completed set is rolled into place with only a moment's delay between curtains.

The premier production will be John Galsworthy's "The Forest," in which the scene changes from a London office to an African jungle and back again.

SANDOW

SANDOW the Strong Man is dead. How many youngsters of today had heard of him? Yet twenty-five years ago it was name to conjure with. The Sandow feat of strength, the mighty Sandow limbs, the column-like Sandow neck, the rippling Sandow muscles, the imperial Sandow mustache were the sensation of America and Europe. Sandow exhibitions, Sandow photographs were thick as leaves in Valhalla. Sandow training systems and a whole chain of Sandow institutes promised to immortalize the Sandow name and fame. To great Sandow died in London yesterday within forty-eight hours of the death of Poland's younger strong man, Bretislav. The latter had nothing approaching the international renown that was once Sandow's. Sandow has faded, no other has taken his place as the modern Hercules.

AIRPLANE FLIERS

NOW that airplane motors have entered the attention of the father of the fliers, it seems only natural to read the standardized power plant for aerial use, still have interchangeable parts. While something wears out it can be thrown away and a new part substituted without adjustments. This is a great step forward toward simplification of cloud-side repairs. The only difficulty is in the location of service stations for the aerial flyer's first stop after trouble aloft may be at the Fog City Gates, the entrance to a very select residential district.

Vandervoort, of Parkersburg, is en route to prison today to start a life sentence. Behind him he leaves a broken-hearted mother whose loyalty played a large part in saving him from the gallows.

In parting the boy promised his mother to behave well in prison and called himself "at peace with God."

In a statement made shortly after sentence was passed, the boy expressed remorse for his crime.

He was sentenced yesterday after his mother, who also was shot by him, had testified in an effort to lighten his punishment.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21.—Gen. Snedley D. Butler, in an address yesterday, declared that if he remained in Philadelphia as Director of Public Safety for the next two years, he would fight like a tiger for law enforcement and if necessary there would be bloodshed to compel would-be violators to obey the law.

He said Gov. Pinchot and Mayor Kendrick were the only persons who had given their real names in the movement to obtain an extension of his leave of absence from the Marine Corps and that the mayor's backbones was standing up like a ramrod. During the day the mayor announced he was going the limit to keep Director Butler here two more years. He added that he would see President Coolidge in that connection not later than Oct. 30.

Insane Murderer Pardoned.

By The Associated Press.
BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—Gov. Ritchie yesterday granted a conditional pardon to Dr. Norbu Ishida, serving a life term in the Maryland penitentiary for the killing of a physician at the Shepherd-Pratt Hospital in 1919. Ishida, alienist of the hospital staff, shot and killed Dr. George H. Wolff in an argument over a nurse with whom both physicians were believed to be in love. Alienists recently declared him insane. Should he recover his sanity he must complete the sentence.

TAKES 20 PILLS BECAUSE OF HER DISFIGURED FEET

Stella Grippe, 19, Wanted to Wear
If She Couldn't Wear
Satin Slippers.

Because her feet are disfigured
in a manner to prevent the wearing of fancy footwear, Miss Stella Grippe, 19 years old, took twenty pills in an attempt to end her life yesterday.

At City Hospital she told physicians she took the pills in her room
at the Euclid House, a home for girls at 1765 Waverly place, at 4
p. m., after a surgeon had declared
the removal of large bunions on her feet, which prevent the donning of party slippers, to be impracticable. "Because of the bunions I have to wear low-heeled walking shoes all the time," Miss Grippe said.

"I want to wear party slippers
like other girls and, when that doctor said the removal of the bunions wouldn't help much because my large toes are badly disfigured,
I decided to end it all."

Miss Grippe will recover.

MUNICIPAL LODGING HOUSE GUESTS TO BE OFFERED WORK

Bureau for Transient Men to Keep Records of Labor Performance.

An innovation in the Municipal Lodge House, 110 South Twelfth street, when it opens Nov. 3 for the fall and winter seasons, will be a Bureau for Transient Men, conducted by the Community Council.
The bureau will attempt to find employment for lodgers, and will keep records of those who work,
and those who don't, and why.

The city has appropriated $12,- 900 for this year's maintenance of the free hotel, which will remain open until about April 1. During the cold periods, as many as 900
men seek shelter there at night.
They are given free lodging and a meal a day, and two meals a day
if they work every third day for the city. Those who sleep and eat, but fail not, when able to do so,
will be given short welcome.

HE WAS SELLING POWDER, BUT HE GAVE AWAY HIS KISSES

Police Are Looking for Forceful Osculator Who Embraced Two Housewives.

A box of face powder dropped by him in his haste to escape may help police to trace a man who forcibly kissed two housewives on Warren street yesterday. Representing himself as a powder salesman, he pushed his way into the home of Mrs. Alice Paschel, 2553 A Warren street, where he seized her and kissed her several times. Mrs.
Paschel fled through the back door and the intruder, running down the front steps, dropped the box of powder.

Two hours later a man, believed to be the same one, seized Mrs.
Estella Hughes of 1531 A Warren street, in a passageway near her home. He kissed her several times and ran away.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, for only 75 cents." This is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, on one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

U. R. SUBSIDIARY BUS FIRM SEEKS NORTH ST. LOUIS LINE

Would Connect and Transfer With Seven Street Car Routes; Permit Applied for

The line will run west from Salisbury to Palm street, west on Palm from Salisbury to Grand and Natural Bridge road, north from Natural Bridge to Grand and Salisbury.

In addition to transferring to the Broadway, Bellefontaine, Lee, Belt, Jefferson, Grand and Natural Bridge lines of the United Railways, the bus line will cross the Illinois Traction System tracks at McKinley Bridge, Ninth and Salisbury streets.

The Board of Public Service yesterday issued a permit to the St. Louis-Chicago Motor Transit Co. to operate three buses, from the Marquette Hotel, in St. Louis, to Chicago.

WOULD PUSH BRIGHT PUPILS

Nothing Gained in Holding to Show Pace, Expert Says

Special to the Post-Dispatch

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Bright pupils should not be held to the same courses or measured by the same standard as their slower schoolmates, Superintendent of Schools William J. O'Shea told 1000 superintendents, directors, examiners and principals in the Washington Irving High School yesterday.

Classification of pupils according to ability, modification of the course of study to meet individual needs and the establishment of different standards for pupils of different degrees of ability should become accepted principles of good school administration, he said.

There is nothing gained, he insisted, in classifying pupils according to ability and then requiring all to pursue the same course of study.

Man Injured by Automobile.
A man who told police he was Walter Clarke, 69 years old, a painter, was seriously injured at 6 p. m. yesterday when struck by an automobile, driven by Sherman Balentine of 1901 East Grand boulevard as Balentine turned west into Washington boulevard from Theresa avenue. Sickly child responds quickly to Tanlac treatment.

"Every time I look at Caroline's rosy cheeks," says Mrs. C. Bask, "my heart goes out in gratitude to Tanlac. When she was eight years old she was so run down I was worried. She wouldn't eat. Her skin was yellow. She was under weight—so weak we feared she would get down in bed."

"But after taking Tanlac a few weeks, Caroline developed a real appetite and began to look fine. She has gained weight and enjoys the best of health. To me there is no medicine like Tanlac!"

FRENCH SUBDUED DRUSE REBELS IN DAMASCUS

Tanks and Armored Cars Used in 24-Hour Battle—Quarter of City Destroyed.

By the Associated Press.

DAMASCUS, Syria, Oct. 21.—The French troops have succeeded in crushing the most serious revolt started by the Druse tribesmen since France's occupation of Syria under the League of Nations mandate. The trouble was not put down, however, before a pitched battle had been engaged in and an entire quarter of the city of Damascus had been virtually ruined. Artillery, tanks and armored cars were used by the French.

The troops were surprised by the suddenness and the bitterness of the attack, which was carried out by a band of Druses which had filtered into the southern part of Damascus and were joined by members of the local populace. Heretofore the activities of the Druses had been confined to the country districts.

The disorder started at 9 o'clock Monday evening in the Moslem section of the city and it was only after 24 hours of fierce resistance to the French troops that the rebels offered to capitulate. During the fighting the Druses set fire to numerous stores and private residences and fought the French from behind hastily-thrown-up barricades.

The French, in addition to meeting the rebels in hand-to-hand combat, trained their guns on the Moslem section and bombarded the rebels throughout the entire period of hostility. Armored cars and tanks also were effective.

The French losses are declared to have been light. A full surrender by the rebels is expected shortly.

American Destroyers Ordered to Alexandria, Egypt.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Two American destroyers have been ordered from Gibraltar to Alexandria, Egypt, to remain in readiness there for use in Syrian ports should their presence become necessary for the protection of American lives and property as a result of the revolt by tribesmen in that country.

Economy to Reduce Mexican Debt.

By the Associated Press.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 21.—An official of the Mexican Treasury Department today stated that economies effective between last September and the first of the coming year will be devoted to payment of the interior debt, in order to close the 1925 budget without a deficit. This will make possible resumption of service on the foreign debt should an agreement be reached between Secretary of Finance Paul, who now is in the United States, and the Committee of International Bankers.

"Chipso shortens the time between the washtub and the clothesline", writes Mrs. Walker,

winner of one of the $10.00 Chipso prizes

However you wash—
Whatever you clean—
CHIPSO makes it easier!

Last week we announced in this newspaper a new Chipso letter-writing contest. We asked St. Louis women to tell us why they liked Chipso best for washing.

The first prize-winning letter, written by Mrs. Dora Walker, 5105 Cates Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., is published below.

Enthusiasm for Chipso and its ability to lighten the hardships of washday for the busy housewife is evident in every line of Mrs. Walker's splendid letter. You will enjoy reading it.

October 14, 1925.

Dear Sirs:

Why Do I Like Chipso Best for Washing?

Why shouldn't I like it best when it is best? Chipso is instantly dissolved and is doing its work, where before time was wasted in chipping soap and waiting for it to dissolve. Chipso removes the dirt quickly and shortens the time between the washtub and the clothesline. It doesn't injure delicate colors or fabrics—yet it cleans them all in the most pleasant and satisfactory manner. The whiteness of the clothes compared to results from the old way of washing is surely the "proof of the pudding." Down to the very last drop of wash water it remains a perfect suds. For these reasons and many more not mentioned I surely like Chipso best.

MRS. DORA WALKER,
5105 Cates Avenue,
St. Louis, Mo.

If you are not one of the thousands of women who are now using Chipso, you are denying yourself a wonderful help in your household cleaning tasks. Chipso is different—Chipso results are better—it cuts your work in two. Quantity and quality both are in the big blue package with the diagonal orange stripe. Buy Chipso today from your grocer in either of its two big generous sizes.

Mrs. Walker buys her Chipso at the Squib Market, 914 Academy Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

PROCTER & GAMBLE
Cincinnati, Ohio

To GROCERS:

All grocers whose customers win one of these prizes will each receive a case of CHIPSO free. Further, their names will be published with the winning letters. It is to your interest, therefore, to call the contest to the attention of your customers.

SKOURAS AND GOLDMAN FORM NEW THEATER CORPORATION

William Goldman, a pioneer in the motion-picture theater business here, announced through his attorneys last night that, 30 days after the new Ambassador Theater, Seventh and Locust streets, is opened, a new corporation will come into existence uniting his Kings Theater and Skydome with the Grand Central and West End Lyric Theaters and Lyric Skydome.

The latter three amusement places are owned by Skouras Bros. Enterprises, which is building the new corporation. The new corporation is to have 1000 shares of no-par-value stock or such other capitalization as may be agreed upon, of which Skouras Bros. is to hold 55 per cent and Goldman 45 per cent.

Spyros Skouras, Charles Skouras and Goldman are to be the managers of the new corporation, operating the theaters. Goldman is to be paid $17,500 a year and the others $5750 a year each. The Skouras brothers are interested in a chain of neighborhood houses through the St. Louis Amusement Co.

Makers of VAN HEUSEN COLLARS say "Use Rinso"

it certainly works wonders"

"YOUR VAN HEUSENS will come out white, crisp, and spotlessly clean," say the makers of these fine collars, "and because there is no hard rubbing their naturally long life is made even longer. This is the reason we recommend Rinso for washing Van Heusens.

"Even if the collar is subjected to a good deal of dirt actually ground in—Rinso will wash it out as good as new.

"There is no edge dirt left. Every line of soil is gone. The Rinso suds certainly work wonders with Van Heusens and we are glad to say 'Use Rinso'."

And Rinso will work these wonders with all the family wash without your having to stand over the tubs helping it. Boiling water sets free all the wonderful cleansing power of Rinso's tiny granules.

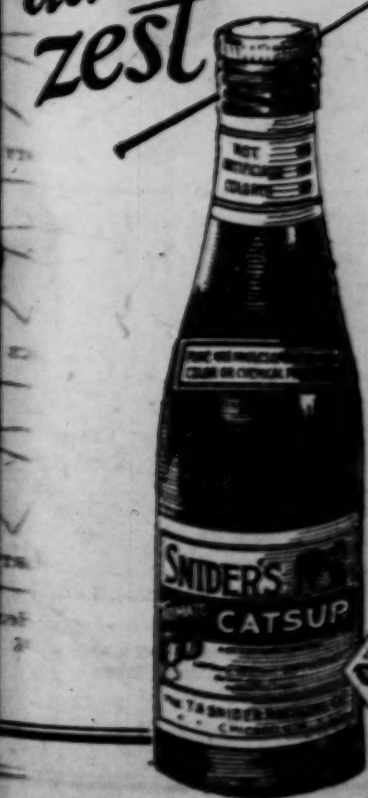

Then, unaided, the rich suds loosen and float out dirt so your share of washing is just the rinsing. Only very grimy places need a light rubbing between the hands with dry Rinso. Always use enough Rinso to get creamy lasting suds.

Now the New Big Package, too

In the envelope with every Van Heusen collar is a washing slip which says "Use Rinso"

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS AND WIFE OMITTED FROM BLUE BOOK
Gloria Swanson and Mayor of Los Angeles Also Not Mentioned
Among California's Elect.

By the Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21.—European nobility may have jettisoned
its exclusiveness and the four hundred of New York may have become but a social myth, but it still is rather difficult to gain recognition in the social register of Southern California.

Out today, the "Southwest Blue Book," edition of 1925, reveals the names of those who supposedly may be considered the elite of Los Angeles, Hollywood, Pasadena and other communities of this section,
and the roll of those not included
is longer than one might think.

Among those conspicuously absent from the congregation of the select are Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks, whose several months ago entertained the Duke of Alba at their Beverly Hills estate. Perhaps the familiarity with which film fans the world over refer to the couple as Mary and Doug had something to do with their omission.

However, there is also no mention of the Marquise de la Falaise et de la Coudray, either under that name or the better known appellation of Gloria Swanson; and Antonio Moreno appears to have been included in the blue book chiefly because of the social prominence
of his wife, the former Mrs. J. M.
Danziger.

There is, of course, no deliberate attempt to discriminate against the film folk. Both Cecile and William de Mille are included, and
Maj. Rupert Hughes, Maj. Hughes, of course, was a novelist before he migrate to film and Cecil de Mille formerly was a playwright.

To remove any doubt as to the blue book's impartiality it is only necessary to note that neither Mayor George E. Cryer of Los Angeles nor Dr. Robert A. Milliken, Nobel prize winner and internationally known physician, "made the grade."

Woman, 84, Injured in Fall.
Mrs. Emily Meyer, 84 years old,
of 5214 Alabama avenue, was taken to the City Hospital last night suffering from a fractured right hip and internal injuries, received when she fell over a piece of wood
in the basement of her home.

DRINK WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a Teaspoonful of Salts If Back Pains or Bladder
Is Irritated.

Flush your kidneys by drinking a quart of water each day, also take salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much rich food forms acids which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken; then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness,
your stomach sours, tongue is coated,
and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating
acids; to help cleanse the kidneys
and flush out the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may then act fine.
This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

BEEFSTEAK is "filling" and strengthening—true, but it lacks vitamins. It is now known that your system starves without that vital spark. To get it, balance the meat in your diet with food rich in vitamins—like tomato products.

Snider's Catsup, made from the leading vitamin food

As food experts have proved by impartial research, the tomato is the world's most important vitamin source. That rich store of vitamins is preserved and brought to your table in Snider's Catsup.

Snider uses only tomatoes that have ripened on the vine, because sunshine develops vitamins. Snider cooks the tomatoes the day they are picked, because that's the only way
to keep the vitamins at full strength.

You'll agree that Snider's Catsup offers a mighty pleasant way to help build up your vitamin balance.
Just taste that savory tang!

Appetizing taste plus vital vita-

more and more gratifying their desire for Snider's Catsup. And that means using it not only at the table
but also in the kitchen as a flavoring, in making sauces and dressings,
in preparing soups and gravies.

A suggestion. For new delight try flavor, the ingredients stirred to a creamy consistency and served siz-

Perhaps you are one of those who prefer
the thicker consistency and slightly

Catsup it adds zest to the meal and rates

LEAGUE OF 7 STATES TO FIGHT FOR MISSOURI RIVER CANAL

Navigation Conference Demands of Congress a Lump Sum for All Inland Waterways.

By the Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 21.—A demand on Congress to make provision for improvement of the Missouri River as quickly as possible, and the formation of an alliance of seven Middlewestern States to fight for the project, climaxed the Missouri River navigation conference here.

In a resolution adopted by the conference, including nearly a thousand delegates from Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota and Colorado, Congress was urged to make a lump sum appropriation for completion of all approved inland waterways, and especially the improvement of the Missouri as far north as South Dakota.

The Missouri River Navigation Association, of which A. J. Weaver of Falls City, Neb., was elected president was formed to carry on the fight for improvement of the waterways of the Middle West.

The resolution declared that the Panama Canal had not benefited the Middle West and "has resulted in a condition harmful to all interests in general and agricultural interests in particular, in this almost exclusively agricultural zone."

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS

Silph is the name of the original and genuine reducing gum. THE ONLY ONE WE PERSONALLY GUARANTEE TO BE SAFE AND HARMLESS.

Even his Mother-in-law wouldn't tell him

HARD to believe, maybe, but here was an actual case where even his mother-in-law wouldn't speak to him about a certain thing.

Both mother-in-law and wife were aware of it. Yet both remained silent.

Frankness on this subject might have benefited him greatly. Still they didn't know what to do about it.

You, yourself, rarely know when you have halitosis (unpleasant breath). That's the insidious thing about it. And even your closest friends won't tell you.

Sometimes, of course, halitosis comes from some deep-seated organic disorder that requires professional advice. But usually—and fortunately—halitosis is only a local condition that yields to the regular use of Listerine as a mouth wash and gargle. It is an interesting thing that this well-known antiseptic that has been in use for years for surgical dressings, possesses these unusual properties as a breath deodorant. It puts you on the safe and polite side.

Listerine halts food fermentation in the mouth and leaves the breath sweet, fresh and clean. Not by substituting some other odor but by really removing the old one. The Listerine odor itself quickly disappears.

This safe and long-trusted antiseptic has dozens of different uses; note the little circular that comes with every bottle. Your druggist sells Listerine in the original brown package only—never in bulk. There are four sizes: 14 ounce, 7 ounce, 3 ounce and 1 1/2 ounce. Buy the large size for economy.—Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, St. Louis, U.S.A.

Let the condition become chronic, and develop into some-thing so serious as to be beyond remedy. If you will attend to your kidneys once, you will save suffering. SIX AMERICANS ROBBED BY BRIGANDS IN NEAR EAST

Party Ambushed in Motor Lorry on Mountain Road and Forced to Turn Over Valuables.

By the Associated Press.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 21.—Six American members of the Near East Relief Commission were among the victims of a daylight holdup by brigands in the Caucasus. A dispatch from Tiflis says the Americans were proceeding by motor lorry along a mountain road with several Georgians, when the brigands fired from ambush. The shot struck the car and the chauffeur stopped. Two robbers appeared and ordered the passengers to leave the car. Jewelry and money to the amount of about $200 were taken from them. They were then ordered to return to the motor and depart quickly.

The Americans were Barclay Alchison and Miss Pauline Ritter of New York, Joseph W. Beach of Bangor, Me., Dr. and Mrs. Turron of Little Rock, Ark., and Theodore Elmer of Oberlin, O.

Proposed Spans Over Mississippi

Completed in Two Years.

By the Associated Press.
CAIRO, Ill., Oct. 21.—Provisions of a contract for construction of two bridges across the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers at Cairo, linking Missouri, Illinois and Kentucky were made public here today. The plans involve $10,000,000 and call for completion of the project within two years.

The contract will be submitted to officials of Alexander County, Ill.; Ballard County, Ky.; and Mississippi County, Mo., by Harry F. Bovay, Stuttgart, Ark., who proposes to build the bridges. The contract specifies that at the end of 20 years the right of purchase will be granted the nation, the three states involved, or the City of Cairo. It is proposed that the bridges be designed for vehicle and railroad traffic.

Cedar Pole Manufacturers Fined.
By the Associated Press.
SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 21.—Eleven cedar pole manufacturers were assessed fines aggregating $37,300 by Judge J. Stanley Webster in Federal court here yesterday when they pleaded guilty of violation of the Sherman antitrust law. Indictments against a number of individual officers of the defendant companies were dismissed on stipulation. The indictments charged that the defendant companies, located throughout the Middle West and Pacific Northwest, had effected maintenance of prices through the operation of the Western Lumber and Pole Co., the Western Red Cedar Association and the Western Red Cedar Men's Information Bureau, all located here.

CITY ATHLETIC COMMISSION BILL TO BE REPORTED OUT FRIDAY

Amendments Are Approved at Public Hearing

Former Champion Will Be
dered to Fight Brettonel
in Paris, if Guilty.

That St. Louis will in a short time have the long-sought Athletic Commission empowered to control
boxing and wrestling matches
in this city was forecast today following the public hearing yesterday of the bill sponsored by Mayor Killebrew.

The Public Safety Committee, with Mayor Killebrew presiding, heard
all the evidence, from the French
side of it, just arrived from Paris, was considered. It concerns the referee's refusal to go through with the match with Fred Brettonel on account of Dundee's visit to Paris.

It will be remembered that Dundee suddenly packed up and the French promoters holding every way to pin down Dundee in before he could skip home. In Dundee's excuse for calling off the dog was that his wife was ill and to return to this country.

The French promoters were furious, for they considered the fight still the featherweight champion. He had not been defeated for the title which he won in Crisqui when the little Frenchman kept his word and fought Dundee six months' times after foreigner had defeated our Johnny Kilbane.

Dundee Feared Trick.
The French boxing enthusiasm saw a chance to defeat Dundee abroad and then the title was reverted to France. Dundee, however, felt that he was going to be tricked in some way. He ac-cusedly refused to return to Bret-tonel. Johnny was asked to come to the board meeting yesterday, and was informed of the evidence in his favor. Dundee, however, was told to return and present his side of the matter at the next meeting, unless he does so he will be suspended.

He will be asked to return France to box Brettonel. If he refuses to do that, he will be suspended indefinitely in State.

The committee, at the conclusion
of the hearing, decided to report
the bill favorably and it will be sent to the Board of Aldermen next Friday. A vote is not expected before next week, when it is expected to become a law.

Muldoon Boots One.
MULDON, the "Solid Man" of the New York Athletic Commission, appears to have over-shot the mark in his ruling that a fighter knocked out of the ring should not receive assistance in regaining the ring.

Muldoon offers a cure, when
what is needed is PREVENTION.
There is no sound reason why
a fighter should ever be knocked out of the ring, over the ledge
and into the laps of spectators, as Muldoon's ruling contemplates.

What is needed is a ring so built that no fighter can be knocked into the arena or press
seats, as happened when Dempsey fought Flipp.

This can be accomplished very simply. That is by having a five or six foot ledge between the ropes and the outside edge of the ring floor. This sort of a ring is not a theory. It exists. One, the only one like it in the country, is in Convention Hall, Kansas City. With this ledge it is impossible to knock an opponent into the spectators' laps, even though he may be knocked through the ropes.

WRAY'S
COLUMN

What's This?
PITTSBURGH, host to the most exciting half of the world's series, and boasting the world's championship winner, has been humiliated.

Pittsburg University, it is announced today, has decided to abandon baseball as part of its athletic curriculum.

In other words, baseball is a successful professional sport, but not so good for college amateurs.

It is strange but true that our national game (so called, at least, is hardly self-supporting in a majority of the schools of the country. No college stadium echoes to the roars of 75,000
baseball fans watching a university battle. But when football comes around, the concrete
"howls" are packed to overflowing. The Illinois-Michigan game of next Saturday is a "sellout"; 76,000 persons will view it.

Thus, baseball, a success professionally, is a failure financially in college sense. Football, a big whoop as a college game, is almost a failure in a professional sense.

You can guess the answer as well as anyone else.

STATE TEACHERS BEAT
ILLINOIS NORMAL, 10-0

CAIRO, ILL., Oct. 21.—The State Teachers' College, ILL., defeated the State Normal School of

first period, scoring a touchdown on a fumble and a field goal from placement, and then dropped into defensive action for the remainder of the game. The Illinois-ans fought gamely but failed to score.

Trial Association, the successful competitors are all owned in this State. The derby finished yesterday was undoubtedly the classiest
stake for pointers and setters un-

It has been decided that the opening City High School League football games will be played at Maplewood County High School,
next Saturday. The first game between Central and Soldan will be played at 10 o'clock in the morning. The second one, featuring the battle between Roosevelt and Yeat-man, will start at 2 p. m.

It is uncertain how many of the league's games will be played on the county field, since no preparation has been made to put the Roosevelt gridiron in shape. The field as it is now is almost too rough for the Roosevelt high team to practice on.

The Maplewood gridiron can be reached by the Manchester car line or the Maplewood bus No. 18, which runs over Lindell boulevard. The stands will seat 2,000, because only three sides of the field can be used for seats.

The afternoon double-header has heretofore been an attraction, as it afforded an opportunity for many to compare their school team with eleven of rival schools.

Early indications point to a hard-fought battle for the championship
among the five schools.

17-Year-Old Fairmount Jockey
'Rides Four Winners in One Day'

Jimmy Dillea, an Apprentice, Rode His First Winner Only 21 Weeks Ago—Has Probably Ridden More Winners
in Five Months Than Any Rider in U. S.

By Dent McSkimming.
"Yes, I've done better than that. I've ridden five winners in one day—five out of five mounts."

Little Jimmy Dillea, 17-year-old riding genius, went about the business of getting into his street clothes apparently unmoved by the fact that he had just performed an unusual feat in winning four races
at the new Fairmount Jockey Club track.

His pals among the jockeys were quicker to recount Jimmy's exploits than was the little hero of the day.

"I'll say he's done better than that! He rode four winners in six months on the last day of the Aurora meeting," volunteered one admirer. "And he finished second and third on the others."

Leads U. S. For Five Months.
"He's ridden more winners in a shorter space of time than any other jockey in America, or anywhere else, I guess," added another.

In response to questions, Jimmy himself said that he rode his first winner only five months ago, or on May 21, at the Maple Heights track. Bill Schaefer was his mount that day. Since that time, Dillea has ridden 133 winners, 11 of them here at Fairmount.

An average of 26 winners per month ranks him as one of the leading jockeys of the country.

Unlike other experts in the saddle,
Jimmy did not inherit his ability to ride. None of his brothers rides for the reason that he has no brothers. He is an only son. His home is in Chicago and prior to two years ago he didn't know the feel of a saddle.

"I did my first riding two years ago at Hawthorne," said Dillea. "I rode my first winner last May, so that I have more than six months of my apprenticeship remaining. I am under contract to Clyde N. Freeman and I will do my riding for him."

Dillea weighs 191 pounds, is short but very sturdy. He shows none of the evidences of undernourishment
which mark the features of some of the riders, who desperately struggle to keep down their weight. He is rugged and strong and cheerful.

"You won't bounce up and down
any more like you did on Super King, now will you Jimmy?" called a friend from another end of the jockeys' dressing rooms.

"I just couldn't help it; I was in such a hurry to get in first," Jimmy replied with a grin.

Tulane to Play
At Northwestern

Southerners to Get Taste of Cold Weather in Intersectional Game.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—A tropical football team, Tulane, that plays against a background of Southern palms, gets its first taste of cold weather Saturday in the intersectional game with Northwestern in Chicago.

And the Purple, which for years has met only Northern foes, has in prospect as its guest an eleven boasting among its members an intercollegiate golf champion in Fred Lamprecht and "Cajun" Lorio, who spoke no English until he was 18 years old and who was started on trick plays by signals taught him in conference.

The entire Tulane team except Flournoy and Blackledge, Mississippians, comes from the Louisiana bayous, where men live and died
without seeing snow or frost.
Though the weather may be cold,
the reception will be warm if Coach Thistlewaite's preparations mean anything. He is trying available subs for the injured "Moon" Baker's place in the backfield and may use either Gustafson or Edmunds.

Michigan Plays Illinois.
What other games on Saturday's Midwest card may lack in the picturesque, they make up in importance in their bearing on the Western Conference title race. Con-

ident Michigan, "Big Ten" leader, is pushing its effective strategy for the Illinois, who, nettled by two defeats, are working strenuously to perfect more assistance for "Red" Grange. Iowa is stressing kipling with "Cowboy" Nick Kutz, who bearing the brunt in its rehearsal
for Ohio State, which is worried
over injuries to Jenkins, big tackle,
and several others.

The first stiff Western opposition
for Notre Dame is being marshalled
at Minnesota. Tom Hogan, end, and Henry Mierau, guard, are back in Purdue's line in its rehearsal game. The Badgers are improving their plunging attack. Chicago is set for its invasion of the East to meet Pennsylvania and Indiana is tapering off its workouts for Miami.

"CHICAGO-PENN GAME A TOSS-UP; DARTMOUTH SHOULD BEAT HARVARD"

Tad Jones Says Red and Blue Is Facing Hard Task

Chicago, Illinois, Pittsburg and Cornell Must Be Confronted by Penn.

By Tad Jones.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 21.—The football season is but half finished and there remain but few undefeated teams. Another week or two will see this number reduced materially, for the final drive is on.

There were a few surprises last Saturday and a few upsets—call them what you like. The Army, the Navy, Princeton, Penn and Dartmouth, of those eleven perhaps most in the public eye in the East, remain undefeated. Yale and Harvard, defeated by Penn and Holy Cross, respectively, now have a hard row in reaching lost laurels. Princeton, though not favored over the Navy, maintained the tradition for which all Princeton teams are famous. It is almost impossible to gauge Princeton's strength under any given conditions. While the games are never satisfactory to either eleven, both the Navy and

Sammy Floun Reinstated To Piker Squad; Hopes Of Holding Ames Rise

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY'S chances against Ames were enhanced by the reinstatement to the squad yesterday of Sam Floun, star halfback, who was dismissed for disobedience by Coach Higgins, following the Southern Methodist game at Dallas a week and a half ago.

It is Floun's last year on the team, it was explained by Athletic Director Bill Edmunds, and since he has expressed penitence for his insubordination, it was decided to give him another chance to distinguish himself.

Floun is considered the best ground gainer on the squad and his loss was looked upon as a heavy blow to Piker hopes.

Princeton have gone through five unsuited and both will be better off for it.

Penn, in defeating Yale, had to extend his lead all the way through the touchdowns negotiated by the Red and Blue in the first half were accomplished in a most workmanlike manner.

Yale Showed Power in Last Half. Yale's drive in the second half made a real game of it, but the Penn lead was not to be overcome. Kruetz, with his line plunging and

Grosse Elected Muny President

Head City Athletic Supervisory Body; Dwight F. Davis Honorary Officer.

Jack H. Grosse was unanimously elected president of the Municipal Athletic Association at a meeting of the Central Council yesterday. Rev. P. J. Dooley was chosen vice president and Walter J. Klein secretary-treasurer to succeed Charles W. Steiner.

Hon. Dwight F. Davis, newly appointed Secretary of War, was named honorary president, a post he has held since the organization of municipal athletics. The association will take part in the reception to Secretary Davis which civic organizations are fostering.

Delegates representing the various sports are: M. F. Parker, basketball; John Schell, football; G. Palmer, golf; Martin Telle, tennis; Fred C. Mueller, rowing; Dr. D. C. Todd, baseball; Rodowe H. Abeken, minor sports.

Kicking, stood out. He played a remarkable game. The Penn center and guards also were powerful. As were the ends. Penn now faces Chicago, Illinois, Pittsburg and Cornell. They will be most interesting games and I believe Penn will have to be even better than against Yale last Saturday to come through the season with a clean slate.

Harvard's defeat by Holy Cross was a distinct upset. Coming as it did a week before the game with Dartmouth, it may or may not aid the Crimson. If Harvard's confidence is not broken, the defeat will serve a fine purpose. If their confidence in the start already made is shaken, then Harvard may be in for a tough afternoon with the eleven from Hanover—for the Dartmouth team is set and ready for their annual tussle in the stadium. But Dartmouth has not as yet had a severe test, and Harvard will furnish an opposition that may easily disrupt a team which has had easy sailing through preliminary games.

East Is West, in Football. Columbia found Western football as played by Ohio State a thing to be conjured with. There are some who still think there is a difference between Eastern and Western football. Perhaps this was so 15 years ago, but football knowledge has become so widely disseminated that it would be impossible to make such a distinction now. Western ideas have crept into Eastern football and have been accepted as their true value, and the West in turn has not been slow to see the good things displayed by Eastern teams.

It is no longer Western football against Eastern football, but one eleven against another, both playing the same game, though perhaps in a little different way. The West may stress the attack, where the East might stress the defense, but here also the view point changes according to the personnel of the squads at the respective institutions.

Columbia, in spite of the snag on which they were caught at Columbia, still has the Army and Cornell on which to work a comeback. N. Y. U. has improved with each succeeding week. It may take a little time but sooner or later these Mehan coached elevens will be heard from. Syracuse, Pitt and Cornell came through in fine shape. They will all find opposition of a different character a little later on.

The game which created the greatest interest of all games played on Saturday, except the local interest of those deeply interested in their own elevens, was the game between Notre Dame and the Army. The outcome was neither a surprise nor an upset. It was a fine Army team that flashed an attack which baffled the Westerners and had them on their heels. But the Army has tough sledding ahead and can not let down for a moment. Yale, Columbia and the Navy are still to be passed. Both Army and Navy have comparatively easy games with St. Louis and Western Maryland before their respective encounters with Yale and Michigan.

Good Games Saturday. All in all, Oct. 21 will not offer the wide variety of competition which Oct. 17 gave to football lovers, but there will be enough to satisfy the hungry.

Harvard plays Dartmouth—an event which New England looks forward to year after year. It will be Dartmouth's first start against a big eleven.

Chicago and Penn meet in Philadelphia. This will be a real battle. Princeton has Colgate and Colgate with Tryon will furnish enough thrills to satisfy for an afternoon. Yale meets Brown in Providence.

Lafayette and Washington and Jefferson since their yearly contact at the Polo Grounds. Lafayette has a big, strong, fast eleven with a defeat of Pittsburg to her credit. The Dartmouth-Harvard, Penn-Chicago and Lafayette-W. & J. games are the red letter events, with Dartmouth and Lafayette as favorites and the Penn-Chicago game a 50-50 proposition.

In this day and generation you can figure football about as accurately as baseball—which is the next thing to saying that you can't figure it at all. (Copyright 1923.)

PIRATES HAVING TIGHT TIME PICKING EMBLEM FOR SERIES VICTORY. By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—The Pirates, having won the world's baseball championship, cannot decide on the emblem they want in recognition of their prowess. Commissioner Landis said yesterday that $100 has been set aside to reward each Pirate with a suitable personal gift. At first the Pirates suggested a ring, then it was decided a watch chain would be preferable. Now they don't know what they want.

Piker and Billiken Hopes Rise

After Fine Practice Workouts

Both Local Varsity Elevens, While Not Sanguine of Victory, Confident of Making Army and Iowa State Teams Extend Themselves to Win—Torres Is Injured.

By John H. Alexander.

Hopes of the local university coaches rose, yesterday afternoon, during the scrimmages at Francis and St. Louis U. field. The Piker and Billiken varsities went through long periods of hard scrimmage work, chiefly on offense, and were in their best form, driving through the freshman opposition with regularity and turning several nice runs.

One injury marred the Billiken Bruy game, led the attack on the afternoon and it may keep the player out of the Army game, which will be played Saturday at West Point. Torres, one of Coach Sav-age's first-year guards, tore a ligament in his leg and was carried to the dressing room. Trainer Fitzgerald set immediately to work on the injury and Jordan also showed good timing in picking the holes in the line and will probably start against the cads.

Cross and Jordan also showed good timing in picking the holes in the line and will probably start against the cads.

against the cads. Jordan is playing his first year on the varsity and the Army game will be his second engagement. His work against Bruy was encouraging.

Pikers Maul Freshmen.

Coach Higgins' Pikers scored four touchdowns against the freshmen in an extended workout, starting especially at the aerial game. Three of the scores were made in this manner. The other came as the result of a long run following the kickoff by halfback Rob Mahan, who went through the yearling team for a touchdown.

The Pikers are showing fighting spirit in their scrimmages and Ames may get a harder game than is expected. The regular date a week from Saturday is now open to permit a long practice period between the Ames and Missouri games, but may be filled with a full-time contest with the freshmen, it was stated yesterday. The Pikers will leave for Ames tomorrow night.

Capt. Ramacelotti, Stanton and Field kept out of the Billiken scrimmage last night and contented themselves with tossing a football around and doing setting up exercises. Ramacelotti's shoulder is still aching from the Iowa game and his hard work last Saturday. Stanton favors his left wrist, which was affected by an old injury from last year.

He will be able to play this week, however. Field's ankle will be strong enough to permit him to play by the end of the week.

Billikens Kept Up.

A general air of determination pervades the Billiken camp. The players have been made to realize that they are to oppose one of the strongest teams in the country, perhaps Army's best in many years, and have set themselves to stop the drive as best they may and possibly slip over a score before the whistle blows. There is no standing on precedent at the St. Louis U. field and what Notre Dame, Knox and Detroit may have suffered is looked upon as beside the point.

Today's session will be the last for the Billikens. They will leave for New York tomorrow noon. A considerable period was spent prior to yesterday's scrimmage in explaining Army formations and today may see defensive work against them.

GOSLIN GETS ANOTHER "WALK" WHEN THIEVES STEAL HIS MACHINE

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—"Goslin, slugging outfielder of the Washington Senators, gets his "walks" out of season as well as in. His automobile was stolen last night.

The "Goose" was calling on Helen Gould Sweeney, "Miss Washington" of 1924, whose name has been linked as possible battering post in the "Galloping Goose" matrimonial ceremonies.

He parked his car in front of his house and later when he discovered its absence, the "Goose" grumbled a far different grumble than when he gets a walk in a ball game. The car was recovered a few hours later.

Buy It Right

There is a growing tendency on the part of the motoring public to abandon the practice of buying lubricating oil a quart or two at a time.

This custom of a few years ago has been discarded as inconvenient and unsatisfactory—not to say extravagant.

The most economical way to buy lubricating oil is in larger quantities.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) sells Polarine—The Perfect Motor Oil—in any quantity you may desire.

Most users of Polarine are buying in half barrel and barrel quantities.

We suggest that you reflect on the convenience of having Polarine in your garage in larger quantities.

We will be glad to make deliveries at such stated intervals as you elect; in this way you will never be without oil and in a year's time you will have saved considerable money.

But, be sure you get the right oil for your car.

The old practice of ordering "oil" is like calling for a pair of shoes without stating the size needed.

They may fit; chances are they won't. Same way with oil.

Buy Polarine in the grade made to fit your car, consulting the chart at Any Standard Oil Service Station or At Any Authorized Garage for the correct grade. Recommendation is made only after exhaustive study by our lubricating staff of trained and able men.

The correct grade of Polarine for your car will thoroughly lubricate every frictional surface and add years and miles to the life of your car.

But, drain your crankcase every 500 miles; thoroughly cleanse your motor with Polarine Flushing Oil, and refill with Polarine in the correct grade.

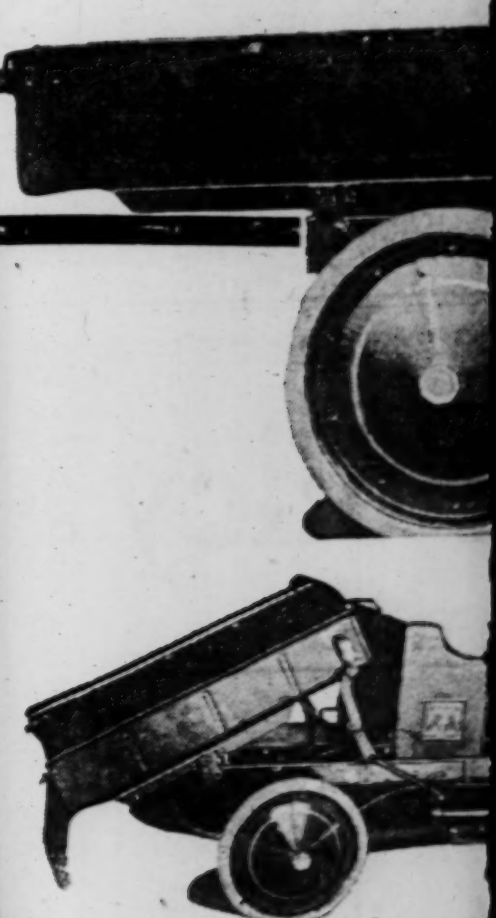

This practice saves your car and your money.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY CHARGE

Charles Kimes, 28, Repudiates Confession — Alleged Accomplice Granted Separate Trial.

A jury in Circuit Judge Frey's court today convicted Charles Kimes, 28 years old, of highway robbery, and fixed his punishment at five years in the penitentiary.

Kimes and James E. Dye were jointly indicted for the robbery, but Dye took a severance and will be tried later.

Fred Geisler, 5111 Newport avenue, Webster Groves, identified Kimes as one of two armed men who held him up as he and Miss Polette, 3437 Texas avenue, were in O'Fallon Park the night of June 25. The robbers obtained jewelry valued at $130 from Miss Polette and from Geisler two pocketbooks, later discarded.

Miss Polette did not testify. Kimes repudiated a confession made to police at the time of his arrest, and asserted his innocence.

COLD WATER NAPS MAKE

OYSTERS GOOD IN 'R' MONTHS

Danger of Typhoid Bacteria is Reduced During the Hibernating Period.

Oysters go to sleep in cold water. Not only that, but, like some children they are good while they sleep.

This was brought out at an oyster symposium yesterday at the convention of the American Public Health Association at Hotel Statler. The symposium was held in the ballroom of the hotel, and was presided over by Dr. H. H. Haskins, director of the Rhode Island Health Department, but its purifying effect was a recent discovery.

The issue was somewhat belittled for the layman when he defined this sleep as "the slowing down of biological activity by a reduction of temperature" but he clarified it by comparison with the winter sleep of bears, hedgehogs and bats.

His experiments had indicated that the bacteria which caused the "oyster typhoid" epidemic last year were greatly reduced in winter, while the oyster hibernated. All of which was another way of saying that the oyster is a "cold water" creature, and that it takes oysters in a month, without an "R."

HIGHWAY ROBBERY CHARGE

Charles Kimes, 28, Repudiates Confession — Alleged Accomplice Granted Separate Trial.

A jury in Circuit Judge Frey's court today convicted Charles Kimes, 28 years old, of highway robbery, and fixed his punishment at five years in the penitentiary.

Kimes and James E. Dye were jointly indicted for the robbery, but Dye took a severance and will be tried later.

Fred Geisler, 5111 Newport avenue, Webster Groves, identified Kimes as one of two armed men who held him up as he and Miss Polette, 3437 Texas avenue, were in O'Fallon Park the night of June 25. The robbers obtained jewelry valued at $130 from Miss Polette and from Geisler two pocketbooks, later discarded.

Miss Polette did not testify. Kimes repudiated a confession made to police at the time of his arrest, and asserted his innocence.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchitis, asthma, and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after four days' use. Get directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Company, Atlanta, Ga.

FRANK FARRIS' PLEAS GET LENIENCY FOR BOOTLEGGERS

State Senator's Eloquence Brings Fines of $200 for Woman and $100 for Man.

State Senator Frank Farris, a resident of Phelps County and a dry enforcement advocate, appeared in Federal Court today as attorney for two natives of that county, violators of the Volstead act, and pleaded for leniency. His eloquence was rewarded with light fines.

In the case of Napoleon Yowell, a farmer, seven bottles from Newburg, a 50-gallon still, eight gallons of moonshine and two barrels of mash were found there in a raid last July. Senator Farris entered a plea of guilty for Yowell, a "lifelong friend, for whom I have only words of highest praise." "My client has drunk all his life," the Senator told the Court, "and it is a difficult proposition, even by statute, to change the habits of a lifetime in the twinkling of an eye." As much leniency as consistent with "equity, good conscience and law enforcement" was requested. Judge Davis assessed a $100 fine.

Mrs. Margaret A. Gerber, living with her family on a farm near Cuba, was the second defendant for whom Farris entered a plea of guilty and a plea for leniency. She was charged with selling two bottles of home brew to agents, who later seized 288 pints there. Farris spoke of her husband and children and said there was "no question of the standing of the family in the community."

Her fine was $200. Both fines were paid immediately.

BEN REITMAN'S EXPERIENCE AS A PUBLIC SPEAKER

He Tells Health Convention Section How He Gathered Crowd in Hobo Lodging House.

While other sections of the American Public Health Association were delving deep into science and sociology yesterday on the upper floors at Hotel Statler, the health education section was having a regular picnic over "getting your crowd," "holding your crowd" and "clinging your point" down in one of the mezzanine parlors.

One speaker epitomized his experience in public speaking in the injunction, "When you're in St. Louis, use the severest terms you can. But when you go to Chicago or Boston, be careful." Another dwelt on the effectiveness of coming to the point at once and stopping when you made it.

A man arose whose striking appearance awoke a murmur in the hall. "Ben Reitman," he said loudly, "of the Hobo College in Chicago. My experience as a public speaker is a demonstration of your principles which will not, I hope, be deemed unworthy. I go into a hobo lodging house where smallpox is suspected. 'Here!' I shout, and gather my crowd. 'There's smallpox in this hotel. You men come on upstairs and get vaccinated.' They understand that. I don't have to say much. Of course, you have to get the first one to go up, even if you have to pay him for it. Thank you." Reitman sat down.

The meeting adjourned.

L. A. LIONBERGER APPROVES PARTY CONVENTION PLAN

Attorney Gives His Indorsement to Proposal of Former Judge H. S. Priest.

Isaac H. Lionberger, attorney, has written former Federal Judge Henry S. Priest, approving his suggestion for a Democratic convention to select preferential candidates in advance of the primary and expressing the belief that the Democratic party cannot hope for unity unless the suggestion is adopted.

As is known, the Executive Committee of the Democratic State Committee rejected Priest's suggestion on the ground that it was a matter for the Legislature to pass upon. Lionberger declares this reason to be "unintelligible" since nothing in the law prohibits such a gathering as suggested by Priest.

Priest said that the convention might be held and its choice submitted to the party for ratification at the election, but based his stand principally upon the theory that the moral force of a convention indorsement would circumscribe the party upon the preferred candidate. Lionberger's letter has been referred to the State Committee.

$440,000 RUM CARGO SEIZED Seven Coast Guardsmen Capture Drunken Crew of 22.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Venturing into the well-patrolled waters where Rum Row once flourished, the wooden steamer Corone, manned by a crew of 22 men, most of them said to be drunk, and carrying a $440,000 liquor cargo, was seized by seven coast guardsmen and brought here.

The vessel, previously suspected as a rum-runner, was sighted yesterday 45 miles off Atlantic City by Coast Guard Patrol Boat No. 113, commanded by Boatswain M. D. Jester. Boarding her with six men, Jester found liquor in the hold and forced the crew to proceed towards New York until two other Coast Guard boats came up. When the ship was seized her papers were destroyed and as a result the identity of the owners of the vessel and the cargo could not be learned. The Corone, built in 1919, was recently resold and sailed from Newport, Va., Oct. 15. It is believed contact was made with a liquor ship at sea.

Seven Seized in Raid on Farm. A raid yesterday by State's Attorney Brown and Sheriff Delmonico on the Edwards farm, near Troy, netted seven prisoners and ended in destruction of two stills and confiscation of more than 200 sacks of sugar.

Children's Bedtime Story

By Thornton W. Burgess

Another Harvester of Seeds

But for the harvesters of seeds The earth would overrun with weeds.

PETER RABBIT was still wondering if Danny Meadow Mouse was laying up seeds. He had started to go over to the Green Meadows to find out. You remember he was over in the Green Forest. He had gone but a little way when he heard the rustle of little feet in the leaves. He turned quickly but there was no one to be seen. He waited. All was still. Still Peter sat without moving. Peter has a great deal of patience at times. When he is curious enough he can be very, very patient. He was curious now. Right in front of him lay a lot of reddish-brown leaves newly fallen from the trees. Presently one of these leaves moved, although at that moment there was no wind. Then Peter saw a familiar little form. At least it seemed familiar.

Old Mother Nature.

Meadow Mouse, said the stranger.

"Any way, you're a Mouse," declared Peter.

"Yes, I'm a Mouse and proud of it," replied the little stranger.

"Then if you're a Mouse, you must be cousin to Danny Meadow Mouse," said Peter.

"My goodness, how smart we are getting!" declared the stranger.

"Where you speaking to me?" inquired a squeaky little voice, which sounded much like Danny's voice. "I certainly was," replied Peter. "When did you come over here and when did you get that red coat? I never have seen you wear that coat before."

"That's funny," replied the squeaky little voice. "For it is the only coat I have ever worn."

"Eh? What's that?" cried Peter, looking very hard at the speaker.

"I said," replied the speaker, "that it is the only coat I have ever worn. What is more, I thank you not to call me Danny Meadow Mouse."

Peter hopped a step nearer and stared with all his might. It was most impolite of him. Yes, sir, it was most impolite of him.

"Why?" said he, talking more to himself than to the stranger, "you aren't Danny Meadow Mouse at all. Your ears are just a little bit bigger than Danny's and your tail is just a little bit longer."

"Of course," said the stranger, "I should hope so."

"Why should you hope so?" demanded Peter.

"Because I don't want to look like Danny Meadow Mouse," retorted the stranger.

"But you do look like Danny Meadow Mouse," said Peter, "only you have a red coat."

"Then I don't look like Danny Meadow Mouse," said the stranger.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By ALINE MICHAELIS

ENDURING JOY.

It is ever the aim of the hungry heart to clasp and to keep its bliss, and the lovers still pray love shall not depart as they prayed with the world's first kiss. For since time began men have ever known that change is the changeless plan, and so they have wrought into steel and stone man's dreams that shall live beyond man. They have captured the glow of the sunset's hue as it shone for a moment's space, and their colors have lingered the ages through to give word of a vanished race. So men hold the joy and forget the smart, for the hope of the world is this: It is ever the way of the human heart to clasp and to keep its bliss!

Tips to Home Dressmakers

To renovate faded silk sponges with warm water and soap, then rub with a dry cloth on a flat surface and iron on the wrong side with a medium hot iron.

Save those paper strips that come on bolts of ribbon. When stitching the chiffon or georgette gown, or any thin fabric, place this paper over the feed of the machine, directly under the goods to prevent puckering. The paper can readily be pulled away.

In Society

MISS BERTHA J. COMBS.

Girls always "on the go" in society, like popular Miss Bertha J. Combs of 707 Cedar St., N. Little Rock, Arkansas, can't bother with constantly dabbling on powder, and there's no reason they should, when a thin film of Black and White Peroxide (Vanishing) Cream makes face powder adhere so smoothly and lastingly. You can get this dainty cream, in generous 2½ jars, from dealers everywhere.

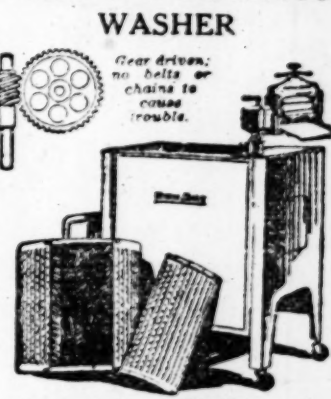

Miss Combs says, "It's such a relief to have the exquisite powder base—Black and White Peroxide (Vanishing) Cream, which holds my face powder on for hours. It never makes my skin feel dried out or 'drawn,' but keeps it looking velvety, natural and lovely."

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Safeguard the Back.

Mirrors should be washed with as little water as possible. A wrung-out chamois skin is perhaps the safest cleaner, as the mirror will quickly spoil if water gets on the back of the glass.

Be Careful.

Be sure to remove your horn-rimmed glasses before using a hair curler. If the hot iron should rest on the spectacle rims along with the hair they are very apt to ignite, as they are highly inflammable.

Winter Shoes.

A mixture of grease and oil which is fairly soft when cold should be applied freely to the shoes that are to be water-proofed for winter use. Be generous with the application as more grease will make the leather more resistant to water.

Undressing the Duck.

A woolen cloth wrung out of boiling water, wrapped around the duck and allowed to remain for five minutes will make the down and feathers easy to remove. This might come in handy when your neighbor brings his first shot of the season and you don't know just how to go about it.

GREEK TROOPS IN BULGARIA; PROTEST SENT TO LEAGUE

Appeal Based on Article 10
of Covenant—Troops on Border Ordered to Resist Invaders.

GREEKS OCCUPY THREE POSTS

Bulgarian Telegraph Agency Says Artillery Has Fired on Village Crowded With Refugees.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, Oct. 22.—Sofia advices say the Bulgarian Government, as a counter move to the Greek ultmatum, has forwarded a protest
note to the League of Nations, based on Article 10. The Bulgarian troops along the Greek frontier have been instructed to offer the utmost resistance to the Greek advance against Petrich.

Article 10 of the League covenant binds the members to "respect and preserve against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the League." It provides that in case of such aggression the League Council "shall advise upon the means by which this obligation shall be fulfilled."

Both Greece and Bulgaria are members of the League.

Petrich, against which the Greeks are reported to be moving,
is a town of 8000, a short distance
over the Bulgarian border and almost directly south of Sofia, the capital.

By the Associated Press.
SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 22.—It is officially reported that Greek troops have invaded Bulgarian territory. No declaration of war, however, has been received from the Athens Government.

The Bulgarian Government has been unable to get in touch with the Greek Government for the last three days, although three urgent messages have been sent to Athens urging a joint investigation into the border incident at Demirhisar.

The Spanish Minister Sener Romero, who returned from Saloniki
this morning informed the Associated Press that the Greek General Staff was in a high state of excitement.

By the Associated Press.
SOFIA, Oct. 22.—The Bulgarian Telegraphic Agency declares Greek artillery has penetrated Bulgarian territory, killing five sentinels and firing shells against the village of Petrich.

The Greeks occupied three Bulgarian posts the agency adds. The Bulgarian Government thus far has received no response from Athens to its demand, thrice renewed, for an immediate inquiry to establish responsibility for the frontier incident of Monday near Demirhisar.

Petrich is reported to be crowded with Macedonian refugees who are menaced by falling shells.

Information of Advance.
The Bulgarian Agency says the foreign office several days ago received information that Greek troops planned an advance movement in the Petrich area. This movement it adds now is reported to be under way along the entire front.

The telegraph agency says that at 2 p. m. yesterday while a Bulgarian press official at Demirhisar
was waiting for an interview with a Greek press official with a view to arranging an investigation of previous incidents, soldiers of the Greek post opened fire and tried to push forward.

The Greek version of the affair
to the effect that Bulgarian soldiers attacked the Greeks first and occupied several high points along the border, is officially denied.

The Bulgarian Government has proposed to the Greek Government that an official inquiry be instituted on the spot where the Greeks and Bulgarians clashed. Bulgaria is also prepared to have a neutral commission appointed by the League of Nations investigate and fix the responsibility for the frontier incident.

Greece-Bulgaria Affair Regarded as Phase of Struggle for Macedonia.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 22.—It was recalled in political quarters today that both Greece and Bulgaria are members of the League of Nations and it was contended that if Greece has actually demanded an indemnity, an apology and punishment for the frontier incident.
